LEGISLATOR MENAGED IN NOTE

Threat to Kill Made by Saloon Man Facing Loss of Business

Senate Leader and "Dry Zone" Advocate Target of Wrath

By Associated Press. SACRAMENTO, March 30.—Shortly after final consideration of his dry zone bill, which would close half a thousand saloons in San Francisco, had been postponed until tomorrow morning, Senator Butler gave out today a letter he received from a San Francisco saloonkeeper, who threatened to kill him if the bill becomes a law. The letter is not signed with a name and Senator Butler has turned it over to the postal authorities, who have commenced an investigation.

The letter reads: "I have been a resident of San Francisco almost forty years. I am now over 63 years old and have a wife and seven children, the oldest being 19 and the youngest 2. I have been a saloonkeeper for over thirty-seven years. I never was arrested in my life. I have been a good citizen, have paid my taxes and raised and educated my family.

"But I have been driven almost insane by the constant agitation of you politicians in the liquor question, and I tell you that if your bill should go through it would make a beggar of me in my old age with a growing family on my hands. And I tell you if you do this wicked thing I will take the law in my own hands and I will kill you as sure as the sun rises. You are driving me crazy, but not too crazy to get you, and I don't care what becomes of me after that. I've stood all I'm going to stand. My father fought for the Union and was twice wounded, and I fought the Apache Indians over forty years ago when I was in the United States army, from which I have been honorably discharged, and I will allow no one to rob me and my large family of our living and turn us out to beggary."

BASEBALL OPENING IS DELAYED BY STORMS

Little drops of water. Little drops of rain. Give the baseball magnates Plenty pangs of pain.

No baseball lid was lifted here today. King Baseball's loyal followers, routed by the rain, have remained sulenly in their caves, with only the prospect of "tomorrow" to lighten their despair. There was no "boost" luncheon, no parade, no "first ball ceremony," no fight in the right field bleachers. "Plag" Bodie neither "hit one over" or whiffed; the raucous cry of the peanut vendor was silent, and was in fact the magnates hearkened in vain for the siren song of the turnstiles, squeaking in chorus: "Two-bits, four-bits, two-bits."

Only the patter of the raindrops resounded at old Recreation Park in San Francisco, where the fans of the bay region had for weeks been picturing a carnival of tumult.

A conference between officials of the Oakland and San Francisco clubs was held at 9:30 this morning, when it was regretfully decided that hope for clear weather might as well be abandoned. Official notice was then issued to the press that the ceremonial opening of the season would be deferred until next Saturday afternoon. (Continued on Page 2, Col. 1.)

FORGER ARRESTED, COMMITS SUICIDE S. F. TRUST COMPANY ONE OF VICTIMS

SAN FRANCISCO, March 30.—Willard C. Wallace, also known as C. K. Hickox, and S. H. Conrad, arrested in Boston, charged with larceny of money from banks in this city, New Orleans and Portland, Oregon, arrested in Boston last night on a charge of being a fugitive from justice, at the point of death in the latter city where he took poison at the city prison. He was rushed to the relief hospital where it was said his death was a matter of a few hours only. Wallace had concealed the drug in his "cotton" shoe, the office of Boston, according to dispatches, he had not admitted he was the man wanted.

SOCIETY GIRL DIDN'T MIND $25 FINE, BUT O, THAT SPEED COP!

A taunt today cost pretty Miss Vivienne Bronson, society girl, of 2709 Santa Clara avenue, Alameda, a cold $25, with the added threat that she might have to spend a term in the county jail if she did not refrain from using the county's highways to demonstrate the efficiency and speed of her new automobile.

And all was not just over, Mrs. W. E. Stone, an Oakland social favorite, residing at the Hotel Athens, who made the taunt, has yet to reckon with the judge who fined Miss Bronson. She will appear before Judge Ralph Richmond at Niles next Monday morning.

It all happened yesterday, Miss Bronson was touring along the Fourth boulevard in her new racer when up drove Mrs. Stone. Greetings followed. Then came the taunt.

"Nice little car you've got there," said Mrs. Stone sweetly. "It's nice enough for a town car, but I like this one of mine. It's built for speed."

"What do you mean, nice little car?" queried Miss Bronson, her surprise causing her to relapse into colloquial English. "This is some speed car itself."

"Prove it," came the retort, and they were off in a cloud of dust. Just as Mrs. Stone was paid by the county to look out for just such things, came into sight as the race was getting exciting. He let out his motorcycle full speed ahead, and he had a little race of his own. Both women were arrested and appeared before Judge Richmond this morning.

"I'm guilty, judge," Miss Bronson told the court. "I don't mind paying a fine, but I certainly was angry when that horrid motorcycle cop stopped the race. Why, I was just 10 feet behind Mrs. Stone and would have beaten her in another quarter of a mile. I was gaining on her slowly but surely when the horrid officer had to put a stop to the fun."

"The fine, Miss, is $25, or you can take a term of twelve and a half days in jail," announced the court. Miss Bronson paid.

CABLES DRAG SUBMARINE UNDERSEA

By Associated Press. WASHINGTON, March 30.—Submarine F-4, sunk at the entry to Honolulu harbor, had been moved 360 feet toward shore by vessels with cables at 3 o'clock this morning, according to a message received today by Secretary Daniels from the commander of the first submarine division.

The message gave no details. This brief message was the first positive word that the rescue parties have made any progress in bringing the lost submarine to the surface.

Replying to urgent inquiries by Rear-Admiral Blue yesterday, Lieutenant Smith, commanding the searching party, reported that the water about the submarine varied in depth from forty-three to sixty fathoms.

The distance to the harbor light, presumably to the nearest land, was reported at 2800 yards, which would mean that the F-4 was now within 200 yards of shore and that shoals in which divers could work were much closer.

MORE DIFFICULTY MET. By Associated Press. HONOLULU, T. H., March 30.—Efforts to locate and raise the missing United States submarine F-4, which disappeared Thursday, met with further difficulties early today.

Lanes from the dredger California, reported to have caught on some mass on the floor of the harbor entrance, gave way today. According to the report from the California the lines were cut cleanly, as if sawed off by scarping against some hard mass. The tug Navajo has lines fast on some object in approximately the same location.

WOODED, SHE CALLS ON POLICE

Suitor Got by Mail Proves Too Dashing for Lonely Maiden

She Summons Bluecoat When He Attempts a Window Entrance

Passionate love-making failed to win the affections of Miss M. Hayes, 3834 Wisconsin street, although she had invited the attentions of a young and romantic blacksmith by placing a matrimonial advertisement in the newspapers. So unwelcome did the attentions of the young man become last night that Miss Hayes was forced to call in the police when her Romeo attempted to break into her home by climbing to a balcony and forcing open a window.

The romantic lover is declared to be Lyman E. Seiber, 5406 East Fourteenth street. Miss Hayes some time ago, feeling that her loneliness was too much to be endured, placed an advertisement in the paper. This resulted in correspondence and the exchange of photographs. Miss Hayes gathered from his letters that Seiber was just the man to prove both a soulmate and a good working companion in double harness.

ARDENT—NOT REFINED. A week ago last night Seiber called by agreement at Miss Hayes' home. His love-making, while vigorous, proved to be not up to the standard of his correspondence, which Miss Hayes now suspects was taken from a lover's handbook of letter-writing. In reading the notes to the police, she characterized his love-making as "crude."

Despite the fact that she attempted to discourage him, Seiber remained at her home till 1 o'clock in the morning, persevering in his suit, but, according to the young woman, failed to make any impression.

He told her, however, that he would call again in a week. Miss Hayes wrote the young man, begging him not to come again. Her letters were of no avail, and to protect herself she invited a girl friend to stay with her last night.

Seiber arrived on time, but found the house in darkness, as Miss Hayes and her friend had retired for the night. Undismayed, Seiber, it is said, sat on the front door step and kept his hand on the button, ringing the electric bell for some time. The two women paid no attention to his calls and he finally determined to force open a side window. This proved too much and Miss Hayes telephoned to the police. Patrolman Nelson was sent to the house, but Seiber had departed after notifying Miss Hayes that he would return on another night.

The police are investigating, and will place a protecting guard around the house tonight. According to the report of Lieutenant William Wood, Seiber may be the man who was seen by Mrs. Borsl in her yard a few nights ago. Mrs. Borsl called out to him and he ran away. She pursued the man, shouting for help, and he turned and fired a shot at her. Borsl told the police that Seiber has quarreled with him over the payment of a bill, and had chased him out of his shop with a revolver and threatened to "get him."

BERLIN, via London, March 30, 3:10 p. m.—The war office gave out the following statement today: A telegram from main headquarters dated March 30 states that in the western theater of war there were only artillery combats and sniping operations.

"In the fighting which led to the occupation of Taurigen (Russia near the Prussian border), the East Prussian landstrum, according to a report from Prince Joachim of Prussia, especially distinguished itself, taking 1000 prisoners. "Near Karanopol, the Russians suffered severe losses. Some 2000 were killed. Our losses in this fighting until yesterday evening were 2000 prisoners, several machine guns, one cannon and several ammunition cars.

"On the Skwa, near Klinka, after a Russian attack failed, we captured two Russian officers and 50 men. Near Olszyna on the left bank of the Omulew, two Russian night attacks were repulsed. Russian attempts to cross the lower Bzura failed."

GERMAN CRUISER IS STILL IN PORT

By Associated Press. NEWPORT NEWS, Va., March 30.—The German auxiliary cruiser Prinz Eitel Friedrich lay quietly at her dock today, with smoke lazily pouring from one funnel, with no evidences of an intention to dash through the fan of hostile cruisers off the Virginia capes.

There seemed no doubt that the limit of her stay was hourly drawing to a close, but the time still was guarded as a strict secret. The battleship Alabama has arrived in Hampton Roads. Marine men here assert that one reason for the presence of the Alabama is to see to it that British merchant ships, which leave almost daily, do not carry fuel to the allied warships off the capes. Scores of men at the docks declare that British merchant ships, after taking cargo and coaling their bunkers, have taken on deckloads of coal such as would not be needed for an overseas voyage. Marine men also insist that the allied warships frequently have been within the three-mile limit at night and that one of the ships ventured within the capes last week.

FUNSTON IN COMMAND ON LINE

Batteries Train Guns on Mexican Belligerents at Matamoras

U. S. Bars Stray Bullets and Will Enforce Its Regulations

By Associated Press. BROWNSVILLE, Tex., March 30.—General Frederick Funston arrived here today from Fort Sam Houston, Texas, to watch over the border situation during the Villa attack on Matamoras.

Three batteries of field artillery from San Antonio are due tonight. There has been no renewal of hostilities between the Villa and Carranza factions up to 1 o'clock this afternoon and nothing to indicate when they would be resumed.

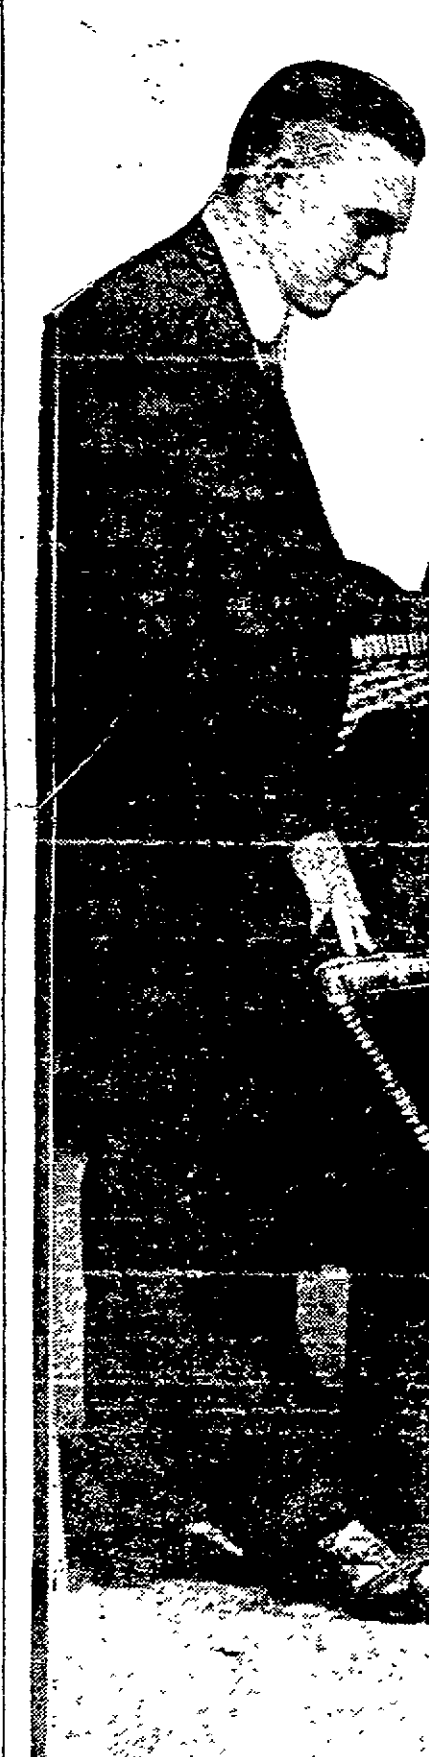

The United States artillery is being brought here to guard against firing across the border, two persons having been wounded here during the fighting last Saturday.

Villa soldiers who fell wounded in Saturday's attack on Matamoras are said still to be lying where they dropped, and today H. C. Harrison, an American Red Cross official, sought permission from the Matamoras commander to bring them in. The commander, General E. P. Nafarrate, replied he had men out gathering in wounded, placing them in Matamoras hospitals as rapidly as possible.

It was said in Matamoras today that the 1200 or 1500 Carranza soldiers disembarked at the mouth of the Rio Grande from the transport Oaxaca would seek to join General Hildebrando Vasquez's forces south of Matamoras. Nothing further has been heard today of reported Villa reinforcements en route.

PROHIBITION URGED FOR WAR PLAN

Lloyd-George Terms Alcohol Britain's Third Enemy

Employers and Union Leaders Espouse His Temperance Idea

By Associated Press. LONDON, March 30, 12:10 p. m.—Prohibition as drastic as that prevailing in Russia today faces the United Kingdom. Press discussions of the letter sent by David Lloyd-George, chancellor of the exchequer, to the

SOLDIER'S BRIDE TO REPEAT VOW TO HIS FRIEND

Although armed with a "proxy marriage" agreement, by which her fiancé, duly authorized a lifelong friend to act as bridegroom in his stead, Miss Jean Shelby, actress, today sought to become Mrs. Donald F. Gerard, and in so doing met with a stumbling block in the marriage statutes of California. As a result, she will be married tomorrow on the high seas, chartering a boat in which she, her husband's representative and a ship's captain will sail beyond the three-mile limit, where no state statutes interfere with Cupid's arrangements by proxy.

Miss Shelby had been instructed by wire to wed Roy S. Tharp, an automobile man of this city and lifelong friend of her intended husband, who, as a captain in the Royal Horse Guards, was wounded some time ago and now is near to death in a French hospital at Aix Les Chapelles.

HE CALLS ON FRIEND. Receiving himself in grave danger, Gerard wired Tharp to meet him (thence who was on her way to Oakland, and mailed written and attested proxies with which the couple today (Continued on Page 3, Col. 4)

Ship Owners' Federation, compete successfully in point of interest with the news of the sinking of the British liner Falaba by a German submarine with the loss of more than 100 lives.

The chancellor in his letter said: "We are fighting Germany, Austria and drink, and so far as I can see, the greatest of these three deadly foes is drink," and added that he had a growing conviction that only the severest method would be of avail in dealing with the evil.

The employers are backing what Lloyd-George terms "root and branch action," even to the extent of promising to seal their own wine cellars and to prohibit the use of intoxicants at their clubs, while labor leaders are equally anxious for the institution of some prohibitory measure.

BRITAIN IN WRATH. Great Britain is smoldering in anger over the torpedoing by the German submarine of the steamers Falaba and Agulla, but confidence is expressed that the latest outbursts of undersea activity will have no effect on the movements of British ships. Reports from Petrograd said the capture of German doctors show that Field Marshal von Hindenburg attached great importance to the German offensive movement in the region of the Niemen river. At present neither army in Poland seems to be displaying any great activity, and all other actions of the extended Eastern battlefield seem to be waiting the outcome of the death grapple in the Carpathians. Where the Germans are stubbornly contesting every foot gained by the invaders. No news has been received concerning the capture or resumption of the Parda-nelles, but unofficial reports claim that the Russians have swept the Turkish navy from the Black Sea.

soon, though if weather permits the Oakland and San Francisco series will start tomorrow afternoon at Recreation Park.

The luncheon arranged for the St. Francis Hotel by the San Francisco Baseball Boosters' Association will be held Saturday afternoon and the usual automobile parade—without which no opening day would be possible—will follow the luncheon. Mayor Rolph will have to restrain his enthusiasm until next Saturday, when he will be asked to hurl the first ball over the plate in the general direction of "Doc" Frost's gnarled and twisted fingers.

Bad as were weather conditions here, Salt Lake City, the league's new center, reported even worse. First it was snow, then rain and then hail. Salt Lake fans hope to see the Venice Tigers and the Salt Lake club stage tomorrow with the first Coast League game ever played in Utah. Fifteen thousand people were disappointed there today when rain compelled a postponement of the opening game.

Los Angeles still clung hopefully this morning to the belief that the uncertain weather there would permit the scheduled game with the Portland Beavers this afternoon, in which case the league would at least have the satisfaction of getting partially started.

BEACHEY'S MONOPLANE NOT MADE FOR WORK IMPOSED, SAYS OFFICER

MARE ISLAND, March 30.—Were the wings of the Taube monoplane in which Lincoln Beachey dropped to his death really too weak for the work, or had some broken wire or sudden crack in a support been the hiding place of death?

This is the question First Lieutenant John W. McCaskey of the navy yard is trying to answer. Having possession of the spare wings of Beachey's machine, the officer is putting them through rigid tests, and declares that the strain, while great, may not have been the cause of the mishap.

Precise tests with sacks of sand for weights will probably finally determine the cause of the accident this week. The machine, says the officer, was not intended for the work imposed upon it, and many factors must therefore be considered in the tests.

ZAPATA MAY NOT LEAVE CAPITAL

By Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, March 30.—Nothing reached the State Department today to confirm yesterday's report that Zapata forces were about to evacuate Mexico City again, and that General Carranza, the Carranza chief, would recapture the capital.

From Brownsville, Colonel Blockson reported:

"There has been no firing of any account since my last report. I have been unable to get reliable information as to the whereabouts of the remainder of the Villa forces and their artillery, but reports I have indicate that they are about 12 miles up the railroad, which is said to be repaired that far."

CARRANZA PLANS TO TRAP VILLA

By Associated Press.
BROWNSVILLE, Texas, March 30.—There had been no fighting up to noon today between Villa forces and Carranza factions around Matamoros and no indications that fighting soon would be resumed.

Villa forces now before Matamoros after their unsuccessful attack last Saturday and Sunday. They themselves returned in by Carranza forces from the west and south, if reports of advancing Carranza troops are true. There already has been some fighting between Villa troops and those of General Huerta Vasquez on the south, but nothing further has been heard here early today from General Castro, reported advancing from the west to attack the Villa forces.

VILLA'S TROOPS LOSING GROUND

By Associated Press.
DOUGLAS, Ariz., March 30.—Five hundred Carranza troops under Colonel Miguel Samaniego and a Villa force of the same strength, commanded by General Alfredo Vasquez, met yesterday opposite San Bernardino, Ariz., sixteen miles east of here. The fighting continued today and Samaniego, reinforced by 400 men from Agua Prieta last night, appeared to be slowly driving Trujillo back. Nine troops of United States cavalry belonging to the Second brigade were ordered out to observe the fighting. Samaniego was trying to reach Agua Prieta, with plunder taken from interior Sonora towns, when he was intercepted by Trujillo.

AMERICANS TOLD TO LEAVE NACO

By Associated Press.
NACO, Ariz., March 30.—Naco, Sonora, the town which was "neutralized" by agreement between the Mexican factional leaders last December, when Brigadier-General Hugh L. Scott of the United States army acted as intermediary, is again being prepared for hostilities. Jose Maytorena, governor of Sonora, warned all Americans today to leave the town. Armed men were sent by Maytorena into the trenches last night. More were expected to arrive today.

The agreement to neutralize Naco was signed by Maytorena, who represents Villa, and Carranza officials, after Naco, Arizona, just across the line, had been subjected for weeks to a hail of "stray bullets" from the Mexican lines during the siege which was ended in December. A squadron of the Ninth United States cavalry arrived here this morning. It is understood that United States army officers have warned Mexican factional leaders all along the border that the Scott pact to respect the border must be kept.

VILLA HURRIES TO TORREON DEFENSE

By Associated Press.
EL PASO, Texas, March 30.—The threat of an attack by the troops of the Gutierrez faction has caused the hurry return there from Monterey of General Villa, said persons arriving from the south. Villa was expected to arrive today at Torreon, to confer with General Ignacio Triana, the garrison commander.

While no attack has been made yet on Torreon the passengers declared that fighting had been going on a short distance south between the Villa troops and the Gutierrez forces headed by Generals Bolinas and Benavides.

Minor Mercaderes, the Annapolis Academy graduate who has been held several days at Saltillo on charges of smuggling counterfeit money, arrived safely here today. He had been threatened with the death penalty but finally was expelled from the country by the Villa officials. He had previously been arrested and released on the same charges.

WILL ADMINISTER LATE TEOFILO ACEBO ESTATE

SAN FRANCISCO, March 30.—After fifteen months because of his fear that the Carranza government would appropriate the last remnant of the estate of his late friend, Teofilo Acebo, a wealthy planter, Leopold Salazar, following several exciting experiences, appeared before Judge Graham today and succeeded in probating the California holdings of the decedent. Salazar was appointed administrator of Acebo's property in the state of Chiapas, Mexico. Acebo had large holdings and was rated a millionaire. His lands, together with 1500 head of cattle and 2000 bags of coffee, Salazar says, were seized by the Carranza authorities. There yet remained, however, some holdings in Sonora. Salazar, who held in San Francisco by John Wright & Co. in some manner the Carranza forces learned of this and Salazar was instructed to turn over an order for the money. Instead he fled and finally made his way here. Judge Graham granted him letters of administration.

STATE LAW HALTS PROXY MARRIAGE

Actress and Wounded Soldier Would Wed, Though Parted.

applied to County Clerk George E. Gross for a marriage license.

Gross, puzzled, applied to Assistant District Attorney A. A. Rogers for advice, and a stormy scene took place when it was found that the laws of the state forbade a marriage unless both parties to the contract appeared before the county clerk.

"I can't grant you a license to wed," said Captain Gerard, "but you won't be able to marry him through Mr. Tharp."

"What can I do?" asked the actress.

"You might get married at sea," suggested Rogers.

The couple then asked for a license for such a ceremony and were informed that this would not be needed.

"On the sea the ship's captain is a law unto himself," declared Rogers. "And if he will perform the ceremony, it is legal the world over."

DEFERRED WEDDING DAY.

Miss Shelby's instructions from her fiancée read that she must wed by proxy and lay claim to his estates in Lancashire in case of his death.

Out of courtesy to Great Britain, she asked that there be no speculation about its contents until it had been received in London.

No note will be sent at present to Germany regarding the sinking of the American ship William P. Fry by the German converted cruiser Prinz Eitel Friedrich. This government has not yet received all the information it desires concerning the ownership of the cargo of the Fry.

Miss Shelby refused to see visitors at her apartments in the Hotel St. Mark this afternoon, and Tharp could not be found, leaving word in his office that he was absent on business.

Attaches of his office declare that the sea trip will be made tomorrow.

The management of the Macdonough Theater, where Miss Shelby is playing in "Seven Keys to Baldpate," declare that the coming marriage was announced last night, and that Miss Shelby had anticipated no difficulty, the marriage being legally possible in New York and other states under the same circumstances.

"I really don't know what to do," declared Miss Shelby, "unless the sea marriage will be legal. There may not be time to go to Aix-les-Bains, and so I will have to take a chance."

Tharp, the "prince" bridegroom, is a former railroad man and met the couple several years ago in New York. He resides at 127 Eighth street. Miss Shelby is the daughter of an Illinois capitalist, and spent several years in England. She is to join her fiancée in Europe as soon as her present contracts expire, if permitted to do so by the army authorities.

Portugal's Situation Serious. Bread Riots

By Associated Press.

PARIS, March 30.—Apart from news of monarchical and revolutionary origin, intentionally exaggerated, information from impartial and reliable sources shows that the Portuguese situation continues serious.

A dispatch to the Journal from Madrid. Ninety-five city councils are said to have forwarded protests against the dictatorial character of the government, while only seventeen support it.

The increased price of flour has caused rioting and a number of bakeries have been stormed by crowds.

The government has opened negotiations with banks for a loan.

The dispatch says that several soldiers were arrested at Oporto because of a revolutionary propaganda they were conducting, and that nine bombs charged with nitro-glycerine were found in the railroad station at Giza.

PLEASANTON FARMER IS ASSAULTED AND ROBBED

SAN FRANCISCO, March 30.—Lying on a cot at the French Hospital this morning, Julius Thiel, a farmer of Pleasanton, told the police a story of assault and robbery which has led to a search for two daring footpads.

Thiel came to town on Saturday. He had supper in a down-town restaurant where he met two men. He remembers walking with them for several blocks after leaving the cafe but can recollect nothing further until he awoke at the Elftor Tower hotel with his jaw broken, his head lacerated and his bank book and $20 in coin missing.

The proprietor sent him to the hospital and one of the attendants notified the police.

"HYPOCRITES" DRAWING INTERESTED AUDIENCES

"Hypocrites," the extraordinary symbolic film featuring Margaret Edwards, Berkeley's "Perfect Girl," is creating interest at the Oakland Photo Theater this week. The drama, divided into five acts and a play, is intended as an exposure of the unchanging duplicity of mankind, its inability to see the "Naked Truth," and its intolerance of her revelations.

The scenes range from a monk's cell in a cloister of the middle ages to a modern church, including a great panorama, showing a set of centuries ago. Miss Margaret Edwards plays the role of Truth.

WIFE ATTEMPTS SUICIDE IN HUSBAND'S ABSENCE

When Edward W. Hutchins, 3573 Gailard street, returned home about 11 o'clock last night, he found his wife sitting in a chair by the dining room table, apparently asleep. He called to her to wake up as it was time to go to bed. Receiving no response he took her by the shoulder and shook her. As he did her hand fell out of her lap and a bottle which had contained chloroform slipped from her fingers.

Hutchins hastily called Dr. R. H. Carter, 2815 East Fourteenth street, who found that the woman was on the verge of death. He worked over her until 3 o'clock this morning before he felt assured that she would recover.

Domestic difficulties are said by neighbors to have been the cause of the woman's act.

WAR RESTRICTS GERMAN INDUSTRY

Business Situation Regarded as Fairly Satisfactory; Workmen Scarce.

By Associated Press.

BERLIN, March 30, via London, 11:21 a. m.—The business situation in Germany is regarded as fairly satisfactory and considerably better than might have been expected in view of the war. All industries, of course, are running on a restricted scale, chiefly because of the virtual cessation of overseas exports, but as a large proportion of the skilled workmen went into the army the sharp curtailment in production was not attended by a corresponding increase in unemployment.

More women and girls are seeking work in some branches of industry than can find employment, but this is far from being the case with the men. On the contrary, the leading industries of the country are seriously embarrassed by the scarcity of skilled workmen. This is true of the coal and iron trade, shipbuilding and certain sections of the chemical industry.

A pronounced scarcity of workmen is reported from the great industrial district about Essen. The demand for coal is greater than the mines can meet, although its export has been prohibited.

Last month conditions in the iron trade were reflected by an advance in prices. The production of pig iron, running about 55 per cent of last year, would be still larger if the necessary labor could be obtained. Many branches of machinery manufacture, an important branch of German industrial activity are working full time or over time, but there also a scarcity of workmen is felt.

VON DER GOLTZ DEEMS DARDANELLES SECURE

By Associated Press.

BUCHAREST, via Paris, March 30.—Field Marshal von der Goltz, the German military commander of Constantinople, interviewed by the Associated Press, declared the defenses of the Dardanelles had proved more effective than had been expected and that he would affirm that the allied fleet would not force a passage.

"We await a new attack without fear," the field marshal is reported to have asserted. "The more ships there are, the better satisfied we shall be. We do not lack ammunition, for Turkish factories supply us all we want. Turkish industry has been sufficiently developed to equip a fresh army of 500,000, which it will be easy to mobilize."

"Constantinople is calm and the sultan still is in his Bosphorus palace. Enver Pasha, minister of war, is most optimistic and we are convinced we shall win."

Field Marshal von der Goltz has left Bucharest for Berlin.

Announcement that Field Marshal von der Goltz had left Constantinople for Sofia, Bulgaria, was made from Athens on March 26. His departure was believed to have an important bearing on the developments in the Balkans situation, which is causing concern in Turkey. It is evident that he stopped in Bucharest on his way to Berlin after leaving Sofia.

War Summary

Battles in Northern Poland are said in Berlin to have resulted in a succession of German victories. The official German statement of today asserts that 2000 Russians were killed and 3000 captured in an engagement at Krasnopol. In the German occupation of Tauragon, announced yesterday, it is claimed that one thousand prisoners were taken. Russian attacks at other points are said to have been repulsed.

The latest statement from the Petrograd war office is that the German offensive movement in this region has been checked.

Along the Franco-Belgian front there was spirited artillery fighting yesterday, but infantry advances were attempted. The French official communication says that the Germans were forced to retire at one point near St. Mihiel on account of the heavy artillery fire to which they were subjected.

An official announcement from Constantinople says that a Turkish aeroplane dropped bombs on a British warship cruising outside the Dardanelles. No information is given as to whether serious damage was inflicted. The allied fleet has made no further general attack on the Turkish fortifications, although they were bombarded intermittently yesterday.

Field Marshal von der Goltz, German military commander of Constantinople, who is on his way to Berlin, is quoted as saying it is now apparent that the Dardanelles forts will be able to resist any assault which may be directed against them from the sea.

The Turkish government has taken measures to prevent the landing of the allied troops conveyed to Smyrna on transports. Large bodies of Turkish troops are being assembled at this point.

A concentration of Italian troops along the Austro-Hungarian frontier is said in Geneva to have been begun. According to this information Italian regiments, which have been stationed along the Swiss border, have been sent to the Tyrolean frontier, where Austrian troops have been assembled during the last fortnight.

VON KLUCK WOUNDED, TO LOSE HIS COMMAND

By Associated Press.

LONDON, March 30.—General von Kluck, the German commander who led the advance into France, according to travelers from Berlin, was wounded while recklessly inspecting trenches at the most dangerous point of the line, after a stormy interview with Emperor William, says an Amsterdam dispatch to the Express. It is learned from the same source that the opinion is expressed in Berlin that as the result of the incident the emperor will entrust the command of Von Kluck's army to Prince Eitel Friedrich.

Announcement that General von Kluck had been wounded was contained in an official statement issued yesterday by the German war office. It was said his condition was not serious.

GREEK STEAMER ADRIFF OFF BERMUDA COAST

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, March 30.—The Greek steamer Nefeli from Spezia, Italy, for Delaware Breakwater in ballast, is without coal and adrift east of Bermuda, according to officers of the steamship Marchioness of Bute, which reached here today from Marsellies.

The Marchioness fell in with the Nefeli needing a tow March 14. After standing by all night a line was passed aboard and the Marchioness started for Bermuda with the Nefeli in tow. Three times the line snapped and on the afternoon of the 15th the Marchioness, her own coal dwindling, had to abandon her charge about 100 miles east of Bermuda.

The Marchioness put into Bermuda to replenish her sick oil fuel.

The Nefeli is of 2475 tons net and is 370 feet long.

ALLIED SHIPS BOMBARD TURKISH POSITIONS

By Associated Press.

PARIS, March 30.—The operations in the Dardanelles Monday consisted only of intermittent bombardment of several Turkish positions with the co-operation of aeroplanes, says a Havas dispatch from Athens. The Turks are reported to have replied feebly to this and they are actively engaged in repairing damage done by the fortifications. Large bodies of Turkish troops, it is said, are being concentrated at Smyrna to oppose a landing by allied forces.

American Protest to England Made Today

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, March 30.—President Wilson announced today that the American note to Great Britain concerning the order in council was practically complete and would be forwarded to London within the next twenty-four hours.

The president told callers that the text of the note will be made public as soon as it has reached the British foreign office. Out of courtesy to Great Britain, he asked that there be no speculation about its contents until it had been received in London.

No note will be sent at present to Germany regarding the sinking of the American ship William P. Fry by the German converted cruiser Prinz Eitel Friedrich. This government has not yet received all the information it desires concerning the ownership of the cargo of the Fry.

BEACHEY'S MOTHER TO ADMINISTER ESTATE

SAN FRANCISCO, March 30.—Mrs. Amy Beachy, mother of Lincoln Beachy, one of the world's greatest aviators, who plunged to his death at the Panama-Pacific Exposition grounds on March 14, was granted letters of administration of his estate by Superior Judge Graham today.

His property is valued in excess of $50,000, and the heirs are the mother and father of the decedent. The latter is at present in Ohio. Stocks and bonds and property in the Forest Hill region form the bulk of the property.

Restoration After Two Years on Parole Meets With Opposition.

By Associated Press. March 29.—A bill by Senator Flint providing for the discharge and restoration to full citizenship of every prisoner on parole for two years met with opposition this morning when it came up for final passage. Senator Thompson, floor leader, opposed it and was seconded by Senators Conn and Egan. On a request that it go over for further study, Flint consented and it was put off until tomorrow. There is a general opinion that the bill is not popular.

Edwage fees in the case of San Francisco are reduced one-third in a bill by Senator Flint, which the Senate passed. The bill has been held up on the floor for two weeks, and Senator Wolfe explained that the San Francisco delegation had not yet agreed to the measure.

ing only to San Francisco, had not been carried to a San Francisco member and had also been considering an amendment to the bill increasing the number of pilots from twenty to thirty.

But the amendment, he said, had been given up because the European war had checked the exportation of machinery and time through the Panama Canal.

TESTIFY TO INADEQUATE FREIGHT RATES ON RICE

CHICAGO, March 29.—Low freight rates said to be now prevailing on rice used in the manufacture of beer and brewery now were held partly responsible for an unprosperous condition of the railroad in testimony given yesterday at the hearing of the western rate case.

J. D. Youman, chief clerk of the traffic department of the New Orleans and Northwestern road asserted that the present rate schedule on brewers' rice shipped from the south is inadequate.

IMPORTED BUTTER MUST BE STAMPED

Senate Reverses Itself on Plan to Exclude Australian Product From State.

By Associated Press. SACRAMENTO, March 29.—The Senate reversed itself yesterday on the bill requiring all Australian or other foreign butter sold in California to be stamped "Imported." Last week the bill was passed after a long debate, but yesterday only one senator, Chandler of Fresno, spoke against the bill, and it was passed 22 to 12.

The bill is practically a free trade basis so far as butter and eggs are concerned, and this bill is really a way to do away with this free trade basis, which was established by the national administration and should continue as long as it is in power," said Chandler.

Anti-Spotters' Bill Is Passed by Senate by Vote of Fifty to One

By Associated Press. SACRAMENTO, March 29.—The Assembly passed a bill today in the Senate's amendments to the anti-spotters' bill, which gives an accused employee the right of hearing before discipline or dismissal. The bill now goes to the Governor. In its original form, the measure provided that employees be consulted with the "secret" making the complaint. This feature was eliminated in the upper house.

Railroads and street car companies protested strongly against the portion of the bill which compelled the employer or agent making the complaint to be present on the defensive by appearing in person at proposed hearings. The bill now insures employees the right of defense when an accusation has been made.

Los Angeles Annexation Bills Passed by Senate in Dearth of Opposition

By Associated Press. SACRAMENTO, March 29.—The enabling acts carrying out a constitutional amendment voted last fall and designed to affect Los Angeles county passed the Senate today in a unanimous vote. Senator Benedict is the author.

One pertaining to the annexation of unincorporated territory to cities and will smooth legal objections to the adding of adjacent territory to Los Angeles. It declares the annexed territory shall assume its share in the bonded indebtedness of the city by a majority vote.

The other permits the consolidation of incorporated cities and is a companion measure. Neither relates to a consolidated city and county government as proposed by another bill in Benedict now circulating on committee file.

Another bill by Benedict pertaining to the Owens river water was passed. It changes the name of irrigation districts in the Owens river system to water works districts. Benedict said distinctly and emphatically in the Senate that he had been encountered in sale of the bonds in the east because they were called irrigation district bonds. Other provisions in the bill permit transfer to Los Angeles of control of the water district by annexed communities.

EIGHT HOURS FOR MEN, HOUSE BILL PROVISION

By Associated Press. SACRAMENTO, March 29.—Assemblyman Harris' bill providing the employment in hazardous occupations of persons unable to speak or understand the English language was given a favorable recommendation by the assembly labor and capital committee. The bill has been opposed by mine owners and railroad men. The bill would require that any person employed in hazardous occupations be able to read and understand the English language. The bill is Spencer's measure to apply the provisions of the woman's eight hour law to men.

Frank's bill prohibiting employers from interfering with the political activities of their employees and Assemblyman Downing's bill requiring employers to heat their establishments during cold weather were among the measures to receive favorable action.

FINN CEMETERY BILL DEFEATED IN SENATE

By Associated Press. SACRAMENTO, March 29.—The Finn cemetery bill, providing for the transfer of the San Francisco cemeteries to the city for their parking and the building of roadways through them was defeated in the Senate today by a vote of 20 to 21. The bill was introduced by Senator Finn, who is one of the sharp corners of the Senate.

It was on the ground that the question was essentially one for San Francisco, that the Senate refused passage of the bill.

The bill provides for the payment of wages to employees in their usual pay-day system.

Price vs. Good Dentistry

TOO FEW SHOW THE DISCRIMINATION NECESSARY IN DENTISTRY

as a rule is the first consideration on the part of the patients who find it necessary to have their teeth attended to, for it is the needed expenditure that the patient's judgment is based upon in choosing the institution in which they look for treatment. And what they want and MUST HAVE is the best treatment.

can be had, and for a reasonable outlay, if you show the necessary discrimination for this profession, like most business firms, can adjust their prices to the volume of business transacted.

We are the largest and oldest established dentists in Oakland, and our great volume of business warrants the most liberal PRICE CONCESSIONS that GOOD dentistry permits.

Another Pay-Day Does It Bring You Nearer Independence?

Pay-day to some people means just paying debts which they have contracted; to others it means a good-sized addition to their bank account. It is discouraging to think that all your money has been spent before you get it—that you are no nearer independence than you were last month or last year—that your life is slipping away and you are still a drudge.

Decide to do better than that; cut down your expenses. Ask for one of our "Savings System Expense Books," which will show you many items of waste which can be eliminated and the amount saved.

Resolve to start April 1st with a Savings Account, and add something to it each pay-day.

Glad to Recommend Fruitola and Traxo

Mrs. Norforth Says She Suffered
With Gall-stones for Several Years Without Relief.

In a letter to the Pinus Laboratories, Mrs. Rosa Norforth, Monticello, Ill., says: "I cannot praise Fruitola and Traxo too highly as I consider it saved my life. I suffered with gall-stones for several years and could not get any relief until your preparation was recommended to me. It has been six months since I took the last bottle, and feel that I am entirely well. Have anyone doubting the merit of your preparation write me as I will be only too glad to recommend Fruitola and Traxo to anyone suffering from gall-stones."

MRS. ROSA NORFORTH.

Fruitola and Traxo are the names used to identify two preparations that are taken in combination. Fruitola acts on the internal organs as a powerful lubricant, softening congested masses and disintegrating the hardened particles that cause so much suffering, and expelling the accumulation with almost instant relief. Traxo is a splendid tonic, acting on the liver and stomach with most beneficial results and is recommended in connection with Fruitola to build up and restore the system that has become run down and weakened through the suffering incident to the derangement of the digestive organs. In the files of the Pinus Laboratories at Monticello, Ill., are many letters gratefully acknowledging the satisfactory results following the use of Fruitola and Traxo. Arrangements have been made for the distribution of these excellent remedies by leading drug stores everywhere. In Oakland, Fruitola and Traxo can be obtained at the stores of the Owl Drug Co.

TWO MEN END LIFE BY GAS ASPHYXIATION

SAN FRANCISCO, March 30.—Gas asphyxiation ended the lives of two men early this morning. Both are believed by Coroner T. B. W. Leland to have been suicides.

James R. Russell, a resident of 235 Fifth street last evening, and was found dead at 7 o'clock this morning, his room filled with gas fumes. Two burners on a gas plate were turned fully on.

Russell was gasping for breath when first discovered, and the Central Emergency ambulance was summoned, but he was dead when it reached the scene.

F. Krokner, a sufferer from tuberculosis, residing at 1332 Scott street, who had frequently threatened suicide, was found dead at 8 o'clock this morning. Dr. Burnham, who had been attending him, was hastily summoned, and found that Krokner had succumbed during the night. The gas jets were turned fully on.

ANTI-KAMNIA TABLETS STOP The Pains of Sciatica

Dr. E. C. Underwood says that there is no expression of neuritis which is more distressing than that known as Sciatica. The cause of this condition is usually exposure to cold and dampness. One of the most common causes is rheumatism; indeed this is so often the case that some writers include sciatica among the varieties of rheumatism.

The treatment includes remedies to counteract the cause of the disease, as well as measures looking to the relief of pain. Whatever treatment may be employed, two things must be borne in mind—the patient must be kept as free from pain as possible and he must be kept as quiet as possible. One or two Anti-Kamnia Tablets should be given every two or three hours, and the patient must be warned against going out in inclement weather.

Anti-Kamnia Tablets may be obtained at all druggists in any quantity, by word or more. Ask for Anti-Kamnia Tablets. In Headaches, Neuralgias, and all Pains, they give prompt relief.

'MYSTERY HOUSE' INQUEST NOW ON

Relatives Knew Sisters Were
Addicted to Drug Habit,
Declares Brother.

Dr. M. M. Fulton told at the coroner's inquest this afternoon of the lives of his two sisters, Mildred A. Fulton and Mrs. Jane F. Fulton, whose bodies were found in the "house of mystery" in Chestnut street ten days ago. Dr. Fulton arrived in Oakland Sunday from Moorhead, Minn., to investigate the death of the two women, and to take charge of their estate. The inquest was held at the branch morgue at the Taylor undertaking parlors, at Thirteenth and Jefferson streets. Verdicts were brought in that Mildred Fulton had died of pulmonary tuberculosis, and that Mrs. Fulton had committed suicide by gas asphyxiation. But little new light was thrown upon the case.

The two sisters were the daughters of a well-known banker of Wisconsin, according to the statements made by their brother, Dr. Fulton. With Dr. Fulton they inherited a large estate, and their income was sufficient for them to have lived comfortably till the present time. "My two sisters came to California 15 or 18 years ago," said Dr. Fulton. "They made several trips West about that time and finally settled here."

For the past ten years they have been constantly or almost constantly together. They were devoted to each other. Jane has been apparently caring for Mildred through a long illness. They had been together so long, that I suppose Jane could not endure to be left alone."

"We knew that they had become addicted to the drug habit, and tried to have them cured. We induced them more than once to enter sanitariums to obtain a cure. But it could not be accomplished."

MRS. HEIM WINS AGAIN IN "GREAT STAKE" SUIT

SAN FRANCISCO, March 30.—Once again today Mrs. Ella Heim of San Lorenzo triumphed in her suit to recover her share of the million dollars taken out of Alaska by Jerry L. Wilkerson, J. S. Kimball and the Wilson-Kimball Mining Company. Superior Judge Trout decided the motion of the defendant for a "new trial."

Mrs. Heim brought her suit several years ago, claiming that she had grubbed Alaska with her husband, and that the action had their beginning here many years ago and culminated in the discovery of the great gold mines of Alaska and the possession of millions of dollars taken from the frozen north.

Mrs. Heim and her 15-year-old daughter will receive a share which may reach as high as $800,000 if Judge Trout's decision is sustained in the higher court. The action is to establish a trust, it being alleged that Wilkerson and his wife Alice discovered the mines under a grubstaking contract.

24 CLAIM DAMAGES
FROM SANTA ROSA WRECK

SAN FRANCISCO, March 30.—Proceeding under acts of congress of 1911, the Pacific Coast Steamship Company today applied to the Federal court for a limitation of liabilities in connection with the wreck of the steamer Santa Rosa at Pt. Arguello, July 8, 1912.

There are 24 claimants for damages, the amount totaling $150,000. Federal Judge Doehring continued the hearing on the application until tomorrow because of the illness of the attorney for the steamship company.

SLASHED DURING QUARREL.
SAN FRANCISCO, March 30.—A quarrel at 479 Pacific street, which resulted in fistuffs and finally caused the slashing of steel, led to the cutting of Peter Lopez, a tailor, at 1:15 o'clock this morning. Lopez was slashed across the face by a knife, and the police arrested Manuel Almador, who was accused of the attack. He was charged with assault with a deadly weapon.

OFFICIALS WILL FACE JURY PROBE

Saloon Bribery Charges Are
Cause of Extensive Investigation.

RICHMOND, March 30.—With Chief of Police Charles Walker and Superior Zeb Krott among the grand jury for examination, and an extensive investigation at the hands of the county authorities, the grand jury is expected to start at about 10 o'clock this morning. The action of the grand jury follows investigation several weeks ago of alleged attempts at bribery in which proprietors of the Odor saloon and the Traxo bar, near the county line, were also heard.

Krott has been a supervisor since January 4 of this year. Two saloons in his district, which extends to the Alameda county line and are managed by Mrs. L. McElhose and Odor, were brought before official consideration, and the disposal of their licenses left in Krott's hands. Charges of attempted bribery followed. Odor declaring that he was threatened with closing unless a bribe was paid.

No indictments were returned, however. The police chief declares that he does not know the intent of his examination.

Kills Grandmother; Commits Suicide

By Associated Press.
PHILADELPHIA, March 30.—Mrs. Ciofola Cohen, 83 years old, member of a prominent family of this city, was shot and killed today by Henry B. Cohen, her grandson, who then turned the revolver on himself, inflicting a wound from which he died later in a hospital.

The tragedy occurred in Mrs. Cohen's home at 1515 Locust street. She was a widow. Cohen is believed by the police to have been insane.

The purposelessness of the shooting puzzled the police. Cohen was well liked by his grandmother. He is said to have been a keen business man and a deranged mind. His father, who talked with him thirty minutes before the shooting, said the son at that time appeared in good health and normal mentality. The family physician pronounced it a case of sudden and unaccountable insanity.

Charles Cohen, the father, is a paper manufacturer and president of the Chamber of Commerce of this city. The family is an old one, prominent in social life here. Henry B. Cohen was in the photograph business. He was a member of a number of exclusive clubs. Lieutenant Albert M. Cohen, a brother, is with the United States Battleship Delaware. Miss Eleanor Cohen, a sister, is a tennis champion of Philadelphia.

Conservation of Wild Life to Be Theme of Course in Forestry College.

BERKELEY, March 30.—Students in the newly-established forestry school at the University of California are to receive instruction in game conservation. They will be taught to recognize and study the different species of game fish and animals, and will be informed as to the economic value of each and the means by which they can be conserved. Dr. H. C. Bryant, in charge of the bureau of education, publicity and research, recently the California Forestry and Game Commission, will give the introductory lectures. He will be followed by N. B. Scott, in charge of the department of ornithology, and Dr. W. P. Taylor, curator of mammals in the University of California Museum of Vertebrate Zoology, one of the most complete game conservatories in the state. As all forestry men in California, by virtue of their position, become game wardens, these lectures will be of service in developing interest and in affording training to those who will later become guardians of wild life. In addition there is an intimate relation between the two great natural resources—forests and wild life. Each is dependent more or less on the other. It is necessary that every forest conservationalist should have complete knowledge as to the value of the game which grows in the forests, and the protection of forests means better food and cover for the game. Co-operation of the state forestry school and the Game and Fish Commission is expected to help in developing the game which is the basis of the industry on which the administration of forests and game will ultimately be entrusted. The first three lectures Dr. Bryant will discuss "California Birds and Mammals," including non-game as well as game birds, mammals, and the enemies of man. "The Economic Value of Birds and Mammals," and "Mammals in Their Relations." The fourth lecture, given by Mr. N. B. Scott on "The Good and Game Fishes of California and their Conservation." Next Dr. Taylor will discuss "The Game Fishes of California and their Future in California," telling how various species have already been exterminated, and how the causes of extermination, and outlining various plans which if followed would prevent the extermination of the game. The course will end with a lecture by Dr. W. P. Taylor on "How and When to Hunt." The University of California is a discussion of California's proposed game laws, and of what the individual can do, together with a forecast of the conservation of wild life in California. EXTENSION MEN JOIN TO ACHIEVE BIG AIMS

BERKELEY, March 30.—Dr. Ira W. Rowther, director of university extension, has just returned from Madison, Wisconsin, with glowing reports of the first national conference on university extension. That university extension has passed through its critical experimental stages and has come to stay as a recognized part of the American educational system is the opinion of the delegates, he said. Reports on the work from 22 institutions represented showed a growing demand for extension work. The conference also offered them through university extension activities and much evidence was presented as to practical effects achieved.

IMPERSONATES STUDENT AND POCKETS COLLECTION

BERKELEY, March 30.—Complaint has been made to the University of California that a young man who falsely pretends to be a student has been soliciting subscriptions to magazines and pocketing all the money instead of giving it to the publishers. There are a number of perfectly reputable students who are earning money toward their college education by such collecting. To discriminate between the student and the pretender, the university suggests that it is well for people to ask any person who performs such a service to produce his current university registration card or his current membership card in the Associated Students.

How to Destroy the Dandruff Germ BY A SPECIALIST.

The dandruff germ is responsible for nearly all the diseases to which the scalp is heir, as well as for baldness and premature hair loss. It is a well known fact, but when we realize that it is also directly responsible for many other diseases as well, we appreciate the importance of any agent that will destroy its power. We are therefore, particularly pleased to give herewith the Clevage Dandruff Cream, a fire rising in a house No. 7 at the plant. The origin of the blaze is not known. A large amount of damage was done, the loss being about $100. The fire system of the works had been under control before the local hose companies arrived.

She Exhibits at the Age of Three Native Gift for Melody

ALAMEDA, March 30.—Although little more than three years of age, and scarcely able to talk, Marion Cavanaugh, youngest of the 11 children of Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Cavanaugh, 212 Clement avenue, Alameda, has entertained a vice-presidential convention of the state, and also entertained a theatrical audience, and been adjudged the best of six piano players, the five others being all many years her senior. Her art is natural. Three weeks ago her mother found the child seated at the piano, playing a few notes. Mrs. Cavanaugh had never taught her music. Mrs. Cavanaugh listened to the child's playing. "Where did you learn that?" she asked as the boy completed "Tipperary." "I listened to my brothers and sisters play, and then just sat at the piano and played it," the child answered. And it was true. Listening each day to the thirteen other children of the household, she had determined to be a musician. All of her playing is done by ear. She picks out the notes one by one, and practices until she is perfectly correct in the piece she is bent upon learning. The neighbors soon heard of the various performances. The child was called upon to play every house in the neighborhood. Her fame spread and she played before the exclusive Oakland club, the Y. W. C. A., the Y. M. C. A., the Y. N. C. A., the Y. L. C. "ALONE IN WALL STREET"

Dispatches from New York, palpitating with the sweetness and promise of spring, convey the stimulating intelligence to the distant, untutored West that one of its proudest sons, Mr. Rudolph Spreckels, unassisted and alone is facing the embattled bulls and bears on Wall street and in other evil haunts of the money devil. Mr. Spreckels is brave and thrice armed, because he has a righteous cause. He stands not alone. He is California; he is the Pacific Coast; he is the Golden West incarnate. Though in the midst of dangers, dire and many, and an environment which has brought financial destruction and even sudden death to many great and good men, the Overlord of Pacific Coast righteousness moves unafraid and undismayed through the pestilential haunts of high finance.

Mr. Spreckels' mission is a mighty one, an inspiring one and a self-appointed one. The reporters who hang about the trail of great men say that he is negotiating with the financiers who represent the owners of the obligations of the Western Pacific railway and that he is endeavoring to arrange a plan for the purchase of this important railroad system for the State of California. Mr. Spreckels has been hotfooting it up and down Wall and Broad streets and has been in close communication with some of the leading spirits of the much denounced and amply muck-raked system of modern corporation financing. Mr. Spreckels, burning with high enthusiasm, proposes to saddle an initial expenditure and debt of $50,000,000 upon the people of California, which will be inevitably followed, if his plan should prevail, by the issue of at least a $100,000,000 more of bonds by the State of California. So, for the purpose of carrying on a pleasant little experiment in state ownership, an experiment which has nothing to justify it but the curiosity and enthusiasm of those who are proposing it. Mr. Spreckels and his colleagues are amply endeavoring to fasten a probable debt of $150,000,000 upon the taxpayers of this State. We should be more disturbed and much more gravely alarmed over the situation, however, were we not in receipt of some very late information from Sacramento, to the effect that Mr. Spreckels is entirely unauthorized by any one in authority in this State or elsewhere to make proposals or open negotiations respecting the purchase of the Western Pacific railway by the State of California. The truth is, Mr. Spreckels' activities in Wall street are gratuitous and his discussions with President Wilson and other officials in Washington, whom he has made haste to see, have no real significance, except as they may contribute in some degree to his sense of importance to the community. We trust Brother Spreckels will emerge from the evil and mephitic surroundings of Wall Street untouched, untainted and full of the primeval fires of truth and righteousness which glow grandly and eternally in the bosom of the professional uplifter, who is always right and who is always on the job.

A NAVY FOR THE EAST—NONE FOR THE PACIFIC.

Representative Stephens of California, who was a member of the House committee on naval affairs, has made a statement in Washington respecting the conditions and necessities of the navy of the United States, which voices the sentiment of most of the carefully informed people of the country. Mr. Stephens is of the opinion that in the future this country will have to maintain two large and efficient naval fleets, one in the Atlantic and one in the Pacific ocean. This opinion is based upon the supposition that some years must pass after the close of the present European war before an international agreement, looking to the reduction of armaments, is reached. There is ample reason to believe that European peace will be followed by a period of armed truce, and that the people of this country will not be willing to surrender their naval protection. Mr. Stephens is well within the truth when he points out the probable need of two efficient fleets. In theory we have two fleets at present, but as a matter of fact, we are maintaining one great fleet in the Atlantic ocean and a very small, inferior and insufficient one in the Pacific. If all of our vessels in the Pacific ocean could be concentrated speedily at one point, they would not be a match in any sense for the Japanese navy or that of any other first class power. The supposition that the opening of the Panama canal would make it possible to move the United States naval vessels swiftly from one ocean to the other is something of a delusion.

The people in the East, who comprise a large portion of the population and the influence and the wealth of the country, will not permit the government to seriously weaken the great fleet in the Atlantic by taking them to the Pacific ocean for the defense of California, Oregon and Washington. This fact is illustrated at the present time. The proposition to send the Atlantic fleet through the canal to California for the purpose of participating in the opening of the Panama-Pacific Exposition was violently and successfully objected to by members of Congress representing eastern and southern constituencies, and it is not probable that at any time during the present war in Europe the fleet will be dispatched to this coast. Representative Stephens is entirely right when he points out this weakness in our naval defense, in respect to the Pacific Coast. We have no adequate naval defense, we will not have, and we cannot expect to have a strong fleet in these waters until the number of fighting craft and ships in the first battle line are very considerably increased in number. People of the Pacific Coast ought not to lose sight of these facts, and they ought not to allow themselves to be lulled into a sense of false security by optimistic statements about the strength and efficiency of the American navy. Our navy is by no means as strong as it should be. We are short some fifteen battleships of the first class, according to the plans which were adopted for the development of the navy, some ten years ago, and we have a very pitiful fleet of submarines, many of them unseaworthy, and most of them an inferior and obsolete type. Our fleet of aeroplanes for naval and army use is particularly unsatisfactory. The flying machine was perfected in this country, yet we have a less efficient fleet of aeroplanes than even so small a country as Serbia. It is far from the purpose of this journal to advocate great or unnecessary armament, but we express the conviction of sensible Americans when we say that the people of the United States are entitled to a fair return for the millions they spend on the army and navy and that they are entitled to expect that our ships and guns and other engines of offense and defense shall be the best that money and ingenuity can produce.

OPINIONS OF OAKLAND WORTH CONSIDERING.

Two distinguished visitors have recently spent a considerable period in California—the Hon. Charles Warren Fairbanks, former vice-president of the United States, and the Hon. Oscar S. Straus, formerly secretary of commerce and labor and ambassador to Turkey. Mr. Straus was also one of the foremost figures in the Progressive movement of 1912, and was candidate for governor of New York in that year. Messrs. Fairbanks and Straus are the two most eminent Americans, not in official life, who have visited the Fair. Most people think they are our most distinguished visitors, irrespective of the matter of official status. Both of these gentlemen spent considerable time at the Exposition, and they also took occasion to visit Oakland and to become acquainted with its attractions and with its rich promise of future growth and substantial development. Messrs. Fairbanks and Straus are not only statesmen and men of wide experience in public affairs, but they are both excellent lawyers and very successful business men. Each one of them commenced life without fortune and with no special advantage; each has become a millionaire. They were able, therefore, to look upon Oakland as practical men of affairs, and not as visionaries, or merely affable and good-natured tourists seeking for an opportunity to say something pleasant. These gentlemen appraised with knowing eyes the future prosperity of this city and each one of them expressed the conviction that no community in the United States today bears promise of a more prosperous future enduring in its nature than the city of Oakland, if it shall have the wisdom properly to take advantage of its manifest opportunities.

COLONEL ROOSEVELT.

A late Washington dispatch to the Chronicle, which does not give its sources of information, is authority for the statement that Col. Theodore Roosevelt "is in a fair way to a speedy return to the Republican party, to the extent at least of supporting its candidate for President." It is further reported that Col. Roosevelt earnestly believes the defeat of President Wilson and Secretary Bryan absolutely necessary to safeguard the vital interests of this country and to extricate it from the formidable perils of international complications and dangers which unfortunately beset it on all sides. These rumors respecting Col. Roosevelt's intentions and his reasons for them bear the color of probability. It is quite understandable that he feels the isolation of his present political status and that he is animated by an earnest desire to return to the society of those interesting and potent men with whom he had been associated all his life and from whom he parted company when he organized the Progressive movement. According to the political reporters the only condition which Col. Roosevelt attaches to his return to the Republican party is that he shall not be required to support Mr. Taft for the Presidency. This condition will probably not be a formidable one, as there is no present indication of Mr. Taft being asked by his party to undertake its leadership in the campaign of 1916. The breach between Col. Roosevelt and ex-President Taft, largely personal in its nature, is doubtless too deep and too wide to be closed. But there is room enough in a re-united, forward looking Republican party for both of these men and while neither of them is likely to become President again, there is open to each one great opportunities for usefulness and service, both to the party and to the nation. It is greatly hoped that the two distinguished ex-presidents will not allow their personal differences and animosities to interfere in any way with the rehabilitation and strengthening of the great political party which contributed for so long a time to the greatness and the welfare of this country.

DIPLOMACY AND POKER.

A certain Signor Benavides, who was recently Villa's private secretary and later joined the force of a rival bandit, has given out a written statement in Vera Cruz, in which he reflects sorrowfully upon the poker playing abilities of Mr. George C. Carothers, who is the special agent in Mexico of Secretary of State Bryan. Signor Benavides, whose veracity we sometimes suspect, asserts that Special Agent Carothers "is always losing to Villa, and that upon one occasion he dropped $10,000 worth of chips to the bandit chieftain, and promptly drew the cash from his pocket and settled." Benavides also intimates that Mr. Carothers has received large gifts of money and real estate from Villa. Unless this story be abundantly confirmed from trustworthy sources, it may be dismissed as untrue. It may be that Mr. Carothers, for diplomatic reasons has found it wise to indulge in an occasional game of poker with Villa. He may also have found it wise, knowing Villa's murderous disposition and hasty temper and violence of character, to allow that eminent bandit to win some chips, but that he ever passed over $10,000 or anything like it in the course of a poker game, to Signor Villa, is wholly incredible. The lot of a diplomatic agent-at-large in Mexico, particularly if he be representing the United States at this time, cannot be a very happy one. His days and nights are likely to be filled with hard work and dangers more real than imaginary. We have not thought well of Mr. Bryan's plan for dealing with Mexico, and judging by results, our opinions seem to be justified; but so far as Mr. Carothers is concerned, if a little poker will lighten his labors and lessen his dangers, we are sure no one will begrudge him that diversion. He is doubtless a diplomat of the shirt-sleeves and poker-playing variety, and we suppose Mr. Bryan's contention will be that for association with Villa, no finer type of man would be so efficient.

Miss Rae Tanzer, who sued former District Attorney Osborne of New York for heart balm, has withdrawn her charges, having satisfied herself that he is not the man in whose company she was for several days, according to her previous statements. Ophthalmia or astigmatism, or both?

Turkey's sultan seeks to calm his frightened subjects by announcing that the allied fleets are merely going to pay Constantinople a "friendly visit." But when calling cards in the shape of 2500-pound shells begin dropping, there will be hurried exits from old Stamboul.

VARIETIES

Song of the Steam.
I bide in the crystal fountain.
And the waves of the restless sea,
But no man knows my subtle might
Till the flames have set me free.
I have toiled through the starless watches
Of the bitter, storm-bossed night—
But I brought the good ship safely in
To the guardian harbor light.

I lunged defiance to the winds.
As we raved across the ocean,
I swung the dread armada
Into deadly battle-line.
I serve a world without reward,
And mould the nations fate—
A fellow-servant of the poet,
A vessel of the great!

Bulken a Delt.

Stephen J. Corey, a missionary official, is going about declaring that Bulken, "the god of things as they ought to be," has been adopted in Japan and is widely worshipped there as "the god of America's success." It may not be generally known, but the exact little comic figure was the invention of Miss Florence Pretz, now Mrs. Robert Smalley, of Kansas City. She modeled it in 1905. Chicago capitalists took to it and it went everywhere. Miss Pretz netted $1000 in royalties.

Anti-Cholera Vaccine.

Speaking at the Academy of Medicine in Paris, Professor Vincent gave some preliminary details of an anti-cholera vaccine which he has just made. Its method of preparation closely resembles his anti-typhoid serum. Cultures are obtained from cholera microbes killed by ether, and a serum is made from the resultant liquid.

Prof. Vincent said the serum can be prepared quickly and gives speedy immunity, as the incubation period for cholera is very short.

Direct Wireless to Panama from Washington, D. C.

Within two weeks navy officials expect the department will be in direct wireless communication with the isthmus of Panama, and the first link of the world-wide wireless system, which will cost $2,000,000, will be completed. The new wireless station on the isthmus is at Darien, and it will be of sufficient strength to exchange wireless messages with the station at Arlington.

Japan's Toy Ambition.

Japan has greatly advanced during recent years in the art of toymaking. The Japanese are now manufacturing yearly about $5,000,000 worth of toys, of which 40 per cent are for exportation. They are at the present trying to catch a much larger share of the world's toy trade, believing that they can get much of the business formerly done by the Germans. Osaka stands first as a toymaking center, followed by Tokio.

Fire Losses.

In the last thirty-eight years, from 1877 to 1914, inclusive, the total loss by fire in the United States and Canada was $5,366,000,000. The loss in 1877 was $88,000,000, and that in 1914 was $235,000,000. The greatest year's loss was in 1905, the year of the San Francisco fire, when the figure was $159,000,000.

Record for the Last National Legislature.
The activity of senators and representatives in introducing legislation in the Congress just closed, is illustrated by the fact that 39,055 measures, bills and joint resolutions, were introduced, according to the official compilation just completed by James M. Baker, secretary of the Senate.

Greek Drama for Princeton.

Princeton's stadium will not be used exclusively for football contests if H. Granville Barker is able to carry out his present plans for the revival of an old Greek drama. Only the consent of the athletic association is needed for the definite announcement of Mr. Barker, who will present either "Trojan Women" or "Iphigenia in Tauris."

While the date is not yet settled the performance will, in all probability, be given on the afternoon of the opening day of the festivities, Friday, June 11.

Too Many Pigs in Germany.

The London Times says the Prussian minister of the interior has issued a rescript insisting upon the slaughtering of pigs upon a very large scale, and threatening if voluntary efforts do not have the required result the government will use compulsion. The rescript says that a census taken on December 2 showed that the stock of cattle in Germany was extraordinarily large, and that the number of pigs was about 25,500,000, a total which only once before had been reached.

England Has One Thousand Censors.
More than a thousand persons are now employed in censoring news or letters entering and leaving Great Britain, according to a statement by the government, in reply to a question by Viscount Bryce in the House of Lords. Bryce urged that fuller information should be allowed to reach England on questions of foreign politics, especially those of the United States. Commenting on Bryce's inquiry Lord Loreburn said he believed the censorship could do very little good, but might do a great deal of harm.

Russian Shell Order Involves $80,000,000.
The Russian government has closed a contract with the Canadian Car and Foundry Company for a large supply of shells. At least $20,000,000 is involved in the order, and it is understood that the total business is only limited by the company's productive capacity. It is stated that similar orders for shells in excess of $22,000,000 have been placed with concerns in the United States.

Sweden to Have Wireless to U. S.
Telegraphic connections between Sweden and the United States have been unsatisfactory and a movement has begun to strengthen the wireless station at Gotterburg to enable it to communicate with New York. The Norwegian transatlantic station at Jaderen, after three years of work, is nearly finished.

BOY OF 13 IS GIVEN THE IRON CROSS

The youngest "knight" to be decorated with the iron cross in Germany is Alfons Koberle. The iron cross may not be worn under 15 years of age, so the boy is obliged to wait several years before having the decoration actually planned on being but 12 years old. He was accepted among the volunteer bicycle men and reached the lines of communication via Metz where he was placed in the field. At Echwalde he was taken prisoner by the French but escaped and by the knowledge he had obtained saved his own troop. Two officers owe their lives to him through the timely operation of a machine gun at his hands.

TWENTY YEARS AGO TODAY

Oliver Pearson is the luckiest man in town. He fell head foremost sixty-five feet and he is at work this afternoon just as if nothing had happened. Pearson, who is a carpenter, is engaged in the construction of a building at Seventeenth street and Broadway. He was working on the cornice when something went wrong with the scaffolding and he fell. As he shot downward his head turned toward the ground but when about twenty feet from the ground he stretched out his hand and grabbed at a rope which hung in front of the building. The fate was with him and he succeeded in closing his hands over it, not enough to hold him, but sufficient to break his fall. As the rope slipped from his fingers his body turned right way up again and his course was so deviated that instead of falling on the sidewalk he landed into a bug's ear that was hunched to a post. The springs added him as he struck and within a few seconds he had pulled his scattered wits together and stepped out on the sidewalk laughing. Beyond a few skinned fingers Pearson was all right. His escape is one of the most marvelous on record.

HUMAN RACE LOSING ITS VIRILITY?

Judge Ogden Fears So, and Discusses Problem in Court.

"I suppose that one of these days we will be handed out a valuation in little vials. We abolish horse racing, gambling and threaten to abolish the saloons because people are tempted. It seems almost as if the race is becoming less virile, that it cannot resist temptation."

This was the philosophical reasoning of Superior Judge Ogden today in deliberating upon the case of Barney S. Dunbar, former race-track gambler, who was hauled back to Oakland by the police on an old indictment just after he had stepped out of Leavenworth prison from completing a sentence imposed for passing bogus coins.

After consideration of the favorable report turned in by the probation officer, Judge Ogden ruled Dunbar on six years' probation, giving him a new opportunity to make good in view of the presentations that several of his former pitfalls had been removed by new laws.

"It is not speaking very well for the present race if we must admit that men only do right because temptation to do wrong is not present," summarized the court.

Next before the bar of justice was Benjamin Rose, a 21-year-old youth, charged with second degree burglary. Rose admitted that he had been involved in similar trouble in San Francisco four years ago, but that he had been released on probation.

URBAN INFLUENCE.

"I should think that one experience of that kind would have been a warning," interpreted Assistant District Attorney Koford.

"Well, it was," responded the defendant. "I have been away for four years back home; but every time I get to San Francisco it seems that I get into trouble."

Rose took the advice of Judge Ogden in asking that his case be referred to the probation officer.

Fred G. Cornwell was sentenced to one year in San Quentin for passing bogus checks.

Assistant Probation Officer L. D. Compton argued with Judge Ogden that persons who eagerly accept checks from strangers so readily ought to be made accessories to the crime when the checks are passed. It seems that they are sometimes greedy to take these checks, probably with the knowledge that they have the force of the law with them in collecting or forcing payment.

Judge Ogden disagreed with the argument, declaring that one of the greatest mediums of business exchange should be fully protected by the law.

Chicago Ordinance Aids "Taxi" Patrons

By Associated Press.

CHICAGO, March 30.—Patrons of taxis in Chicago will be saved nearly $100,000 annually, it was estimated today, as a result of an ordinance passed by the city council last night sharply reducing rates.

Under the new schedule the rate was reduced from 50 cents to 40 cents for the first half-mile or fraction thereof for one person, and 10 cents for each additional quarter mile. For each additional person the rate was reduced from 20 to 15 cents.

The rate for a two-passenger cab per hour was cut from $3 to $2.50, and for a five-passenger vehicle per hour from $4 to $3.50.

FIGHTS IN DARK AND OVERPOWERS BURGLAR

SAN FRANCISCO, March 30.—J. Brizwala left his room in the New Western Hotel, 808 Kearny street this morning to telephone. When he returned he found the light which he had left burning extinguished and his door closed. Entering, he ran into a burglar and the pair struggled together for five minutes. Finally the intruder was overcome, and Brizwala tied him up and notified the hotel office. Patrolman Hurley and Special Officer Daggett arrived and took the man into custody. A fountain pen and a knife taken from the room were found on his person. He gave the name of Nick Kovnozeny and was charged with burglary.

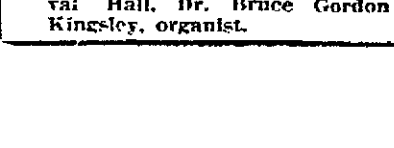

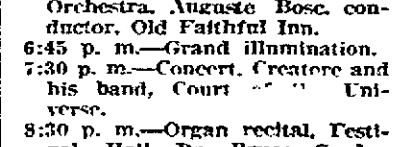

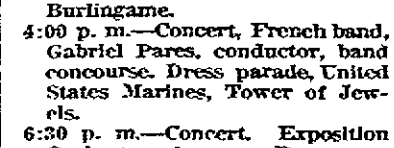

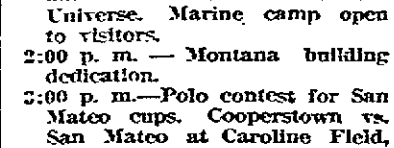

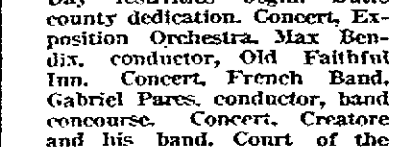

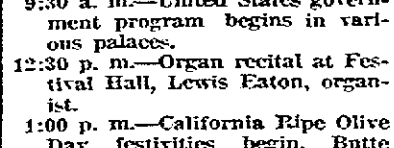

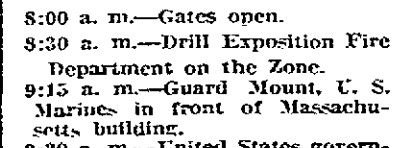

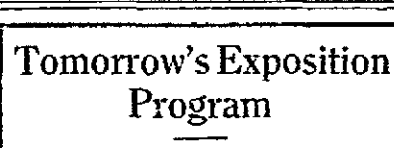

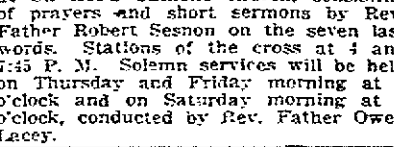

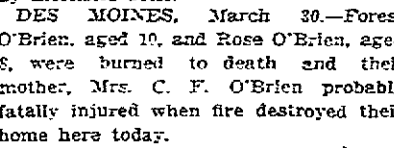

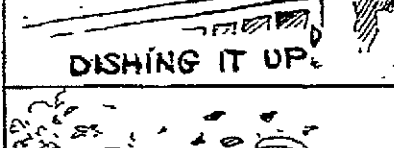

LOST COAT CAUSES ARREST

Harry Steele was arrested last night and is being held during investigation of the report that an overcoat, valued at $25, had been stolen from George Phillips, 1412 Blackstone street, Berkeley, and had passed it off for $1 in Oakland. Steele was out on probation prior to his arrest. He has been employed by an expressman, and the overcoat is alleged to have been stolen when the household effects of the Phillips family were being moved.

Funny World SAYS KET

GIRL HEROINE MADE NOBLE EFFORT

Orphans From Vallejo Are Rescued From Vessel in Night.

Edith Akers, 15 years of age, who risked her life last night in a vain attempt to save from drowning her boy friend, Harold Hunt, 15 years of age, whose canoe tipped over in a sudden gust of wind as he was crossing Lake Merritt to join the girl and a party of friends who awaited him on the shores of Lakeside Park, was reported as recovered today from her experience.

Hunt was the son of J. H. Hunt, mill-millwright fruit packer of 150 Lake street. Miss Akers is the daughter of Mrs. Morris Akers, a widow, residing in the El Nido apartments.

Young Hunt was drowned within 150 feet of the shores of Lakeside Park. He had an engagement with Miss Akers and a party of boys and girls, who intended to play practice tennis games in the Lakeside courts in anticipation of a tournament which was to have been played this afternoon. Hunt left the Municipal boat house in his canoe, paddling toward the party which awaited him on the bank. When 150 feet from the shore a sudden gust of wind overturned the boat.

GIRL TO RESCUE.

The boy tried to swim, but he sank from sight. Miss Akers, after hastily throwing off some of her outer garments, waded into the water, which was shallow, and walked until she reached an unseen bank, and plunged overboard into deep water. She swam to the canoe but the boy was not in sight. He did not rise to the surface. When attendants at the municipal boat house brought the body to the surface, Miss Akers collapsed and was removed to her home in a serious condition.

A pathetic feature of the tragedy was that but ten minutes before the boy had been pronounced cured of a tubercular infection of his leg. During the last year he had undergone two operations and had been in a hospital the greater part of the time. He had just visited his physician, where a final examination had been made, and he had been told that he was entirely recovered.

He telephoned the good news to his mother and started to keep his tennis engagement with Miss Akers.

WAS GOOD SWIMMER.

His friends believed that the operations on his leg were responsible for his inability to save himself. He was a good swimmer and had won recognition for his athletic prowess at the Oakland Y. M. C. A.

"We were going to have a tennis tournament tomorrow and intended practicing for a while on the Lakeside courts," explained Miss Akers. "Harold had been taking a lesson with his private tutor and I waited for him on the opposite shore of the lake."

"I saw him put out in his canoe and he waved his hand at me as he started. From that time to time we spoke to one another and he was less than one hundred yards away before he had any trouble."

"He was sitting in the rear of the canoe and the bow of the craft was slightly tilted out of the water. A heavy wind was blowing and the water was swept with white caps. Very suddenly the canoe seemed to swamp. Harold tried to extricate himself before it overturned, but his foot seemed to catch."

He was a pretty good swimmer and was perfectly cool when thrown into the water. "Don't try to save me," he called out. "I can swim and am all right."

I called back: "Float, Harold, float." He tried to float, but his head dropped back and went under water. Then he disappeared. I had already started to partly disrobe, pulling off my outer dress so that my arms would be free. I hadn't time to take off my shoes, so waded right in with them on.

The water was very shallow and I thought I would be able to walk right out to where he had gone down. All of a sudden I stepped out of the shoal and went down over my head. I struck out, swimming as fast as I knew how, but when I reached the spot, he had already disappeared. I explored around for a few moments, expecting him to come up, but only bubbles rose to the surface.

NO SWIMMER NEARBY.

"I swam back to shore, trying to think what should be done. Several men were standing about, terribly excited, but none of them could swim. One young fellow struck out and made a dive under, but could find nothing. When he returned he said that it was so muddy he could not find the body."

By this time Mrs. Hunt had reached the scene in her machine. I jumped in and directed her to drive toward town for aid. As soon as we reached Broadway I telephoned to the police and asked them to send divers down to the lake. They said that a diver had already been sent. We drove back to the lake and found that Harold's body had been brought up. They were working over him, but we took him to the Emergency hospital in the machine."

200 ORPHANS IN FRISBIE WRECK

Children Are Removed Safely
From Vessel on Rock in Bay.

The General Frisbie was pulled off Anita Rock at 9:30 this morning by Crowley launch No. 1 and the life-saving motor boat from the Fort Point life-saving station, in charge of Captain Clarke. After the vessel was towed into deep water by the two launches, the Red Stack tug Dauntless put a line aboard her and towed her to the Union Iron Works, where she will be dry docked. As yet it is impossible to ascertain the damage to the hull of the Frisbie. The pumps were kept going while the vessel was being towed to the iron works in order to keep her from filling.

Federal harbor officials announced today that an investigation would be started immediately into the crashing of the steamer on Anita Rock, off the Exposition grounds, last night, while the vessel was crowded with Solano county passengers, including 200 children from the Good Templars' Orphan Home at Vallejo.

The accident occurred shortly before 10 o'clock at night, and a panic among the children and passengers followed the crash.

TERROR IS SEATED.

Working fast among the terrified children, captain and crew succeeded in restoring order and holding their charges under control until the arrival of rescue boats. The distress signals from the excursion boat were heard by the battleship Oregon, which dispatched two steam launches. The life-saving crews from Fort Point and Point Bonita also responded to the alarm. Captain Potwin of the Frisbie superintended the removal of the crowd from the ship as the rescue boats arrived. The children and women were taken from the boat first, following which the men were taken off. The crew stayed with the vessel, working at the pumps during the night.

The vessel is leaking badly, but the pumps, it is declared, working full capacity, are just equal to the task of keeping the hold clear.

SEARCHLIGHTS GIVE AID.

The vessel, on striking the rocks, listed heavily to starboard, but righted itself again. A battery of searchlights from the Exposition was directed at once toward the vessel, and the sea was smooth. The rescuers worked in perfect light.

The accident was caused by Anita Rock, a submerged reef about 300 feet north of the Idaho building. The vessel had been steamed about the neighborhood through the promise of Captain Potwin to give the children a view of the lighting of the Exposition.

The Frisbie is a 500-ton steamer, 160 feet long. It was built in Washington 15 years ago.

The rescued children were rushed to the Idaho building of the Exposition, where they were warmed and cheered, and automobiles later took them to the ferry.

The children had been given the trip as a portion of the Solano County Day celebration. The vessel had taken them on at the Exposition pier, to return to Vallejo.

John Swaberg, a freeman employed on the first two days, a Scannel, received a wrench shouldered and badly wrenched foot while engaging in the rescue. He worked until early this morning aiding in the effort to float the vessel and then applied to the harbor hospital for treatment.

More Rain, Is Gloomy Weather Prediction

SAN FRANCISCO, March 30.—A new storm, central off the Washington coast, and drifting the storm which passed over California, a day, is responsible for light rain, which has extended from San Francisco northward. The precipitation was very light for the 24 hours ending 11 o'clock this morning, most stations reporting but little over .01 of an inch. The showers are expected to continue tonight and tomorrow. It is not thought the rain will go south, and there is a possibility that there will be a break and clearing conditions in the morning.

SON SEEKS PORTION OF $25,000 ESTATE

SAN FRANCISCO, March 30.—Edwin R. Williams of Oakland, son of the late Thomas J. Williams, rancher of Santa Barbara county, began a contest of the will yesterday on the ground of undue influence by Martha Williams, a niece of the decedent. The estate is valued at $25,000, consisting of property in Santa Barbara county and this city. A provision in the will filed for probate March 19, cuts off Edwin R. Williams and a second son from any share in the estate, and there is a possibility that the will will be a break and clearing conditions in the morning.

MISS OLIVE WHEELER TO WED MONTANA MAN WINS BAY CITY GIRL

An interesting surprise for society on both sides of the bay is the announcement that Miss Olive Wheeler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stetson Wheeler, will be married quite next Monday to Walter McLeod of Missoula, Mont. No engagement had been announced and the wedding plans were a carefully guarded secret. The ceremony will take place in the Wheeler home on Washington street, San Francisco, and will be attended by relatives and a few close friends. Miss Wheeler, who is the second of four charming daughters of the household, met her fiance while on a visit to Mrs. Frank Lusk in Missoula last fall. He is a nephew of A. B. Hammond of San Francisco and soon after Miss Wheeler's return came to San Francisco to visit his uncle's home. He is engaged in the lumber business in Montana, where the young couple will live after a honeymoon in California.

Miss Wheeler is a graduate of the University of Berkeley and has many friends in society on this side of the bay, where the family formerly resided. She has been one of the most attractive belles of the smart set in San Francisco, where the "Wheeler girls" have been among the favorites of the younger set. Her sisters are Mrs. Bradley Head (Elizabeth Wheeler) of Berkeley, Mrs. Matt Savage (Lillian Wheeler) of Kentucky, and Miss Jean Wheeler, Charles Stetson Wheeler Jr., who married an eastern girl last summer, is her brother. The wedding on Monday will be the fourth in the family in a year.

LAFT & PENNOYER COMPLETE SHOWING OF Mme. Lyra Corsets

We beg to announce that the season's showing of Madame Lyra Models is ready for your inspection.

This season shows a wide diversity of demand for many types of Corsets. The Madame Lyra line meets this varied demand in every respect. There is a comprehensive range of different designs of varied proportions, including models, perfect for all types of figures. A conspicuous feature of the late designs is the new bust, carefully modeled to give a beautiful line for the closely fitting bodice. Some models show the slight nip at the waist, which gives so much grace and beauty to the figure. Some models are boned rather more firmly than for a season or two, boning used to provide both supporting and fitting qualities. In no case, however, is the boning so heavy as to become a burden. Many free hips are shown. In fact, the season's Madame Lyra Corsets are admirably constructed to provide the modish silhouette, but in no instance is perfect ease lost sight of.

Many comfort-giving features are introduced. Elastic insertions, frequently used, allow freedom of movement. Several of the Madame Lyra models are especially designed for dancing, athletics or general wear where extreme freedom is desired. "Corsets de ruban" seem to be the mode of the moment. No Corset gives a more youthful figure than these ribbon Corsets. As the French say, "la jeunesse en ruban," and so it is.

As for materials, never before have the Madame Lyra Corsets been more exclusive. The trimmings are sumptuous, each trimming designed to be in harmony with the character of each individual corset. The perfect workmanship of Madame Lyra Corsets will speak for itself. No corset is more exquisitely made than the Madame Lyra. Moreover, Madame Lyra Corsets are so carefully modeled that only slight, if any, alterations are required.

BASEBALL

By Billy Fitz

(By BILLY FITZ.)

THESE are the kind of days that drive the baseball writer nuts. The public does him the honor for once in its life to look to him for information, and all he can do is bite his finger nails and stall. By all the rules and regulations of the Coast League, the sixteenth annual race of that organization should start this afternoon, when Hizzore Mayor Ralph hurls a baseball at the head of "Hizzore" Elliott in Recreation Park at 5:45. There should be a luncheon at the St. Francis at 12:30, speeches by baseball boosters, and an auto parade afterwards, but the rain has necessitated the whole program being put over until tomorrow.

The batting order of both clubs has been announced as follows:

President A. T. Baum has announced that Jimmy Toman has been selected to temporarily fill out the umpire staff. The former Los Angeles infielder has been ordered to work with Bill Phyle in the southern series this week. Toman is signed by the Northwest League, but does not have to report until April 11, so that he can help out Baum until a regular diamond umpire is located.

Manager Tyler Christian of the Oaks has released Pitcher Jake Geyer and Catcher Price. Geyer was not satisfied with the terms offered him and refused to report while the acquisition of "Red" Kuhn necessitated Christian releasing Price.

Walter "Red" Kuhn, the new Oak backstop purchased from the Sox, arrived yesterday from Los Angeles and signed his contract with the Oaks. He immediately donned a uniform and got into the two hours practice.

It is being hinted by Walter McCredie that Bobby Davis, his third catcher, will be traded to the White Sox for Al Brown, who is another player yet to be named. Manager Rowland saw Davis perform in about five games and became enthusiastic over him. If Davis goes to the Sox he will be the fourth infielder to go to the big leagues in one year from Portland; also, Davis was only a utility infielder last year, which is going some, for few utility men have gone from the minors to plug up holes in the big league.

In yesterday's column, we printed the line-ups for this afternoon with the fielding and batting averages of the opposing Oaks and Seals. Here are the figures on the other four clubs as they will face each other:

JOE TOBIN IS MADE A FREE AGENT

Joe Tobin has been made a free agent by Harry Wolverton, manager of the Seals, following the latter's unsuccessful effort to acquire the little outfielder to the Northwest League. Tobin would like to catch on with Oakland, but the acquisition of Mundorf and Johnston, together with the necessity of finding a place for Ruben Gardner, makes it seem impractical. Tobin is a willing youngster, fast and ambitious. For a while last year he was the king-pin slugger of the Coast League, but the pitchers found his weakness.

Played regularly, Tobin figures to become a star, but no manager apparently cares to assume the developing process.

TOBY MILLER WILL INVADE EAST

Toby Miller, local boxing star, is to invade the East. Miller is a light weight and ought to make trouble for several lads now occupying high positions in the boxing game. Miller here met them all from Johnny McCarthy to "Fighting" Billy Murray. He is a very willing performer, uses both hands to excellent advantage, and is just the kind of a lad to make the fight an interesting one and bring the spectators to their feet.

What the Rival Managers Say

(BY TYLER CHRISTIAN.)
I am satisfied with the team I have rounded up to represent Oakland, Johnston, Middleton and Mundorf constitute an outfield that compares favorably with any other set in the league, while my pitching staff looks the equal of any and better than a few of the opposing clubs' pitching staffs.

The acquisition of "Red" Kuhn makes our catching staff one of the best in the league, while I am sure that Alcock and Manda will bolster up the weak spots in last year's line-up. The Oaks will be in the light from the start.

(BY HARRY WOLVERTON, Manager of the Seals.)
I am not claiming any early season championship. I merely wish to state that the team that proves superior to the Seals will win the championship. We have speed, a wonderful amount of "pep," and every regular is a natural hitter. I look for Hichman and Jones, my two recruits, to prove the sensations of the league.

(BY WALTER MCCREDIE, Manager of the Portland Beavers.)
I am glad that the Seals are not picking my team to win the pennant. They did not pick the Beavers last year and we won the pennant. I admit that I lost three wonderful infielders in Rodgers, Kores and Duncroft, but I have built players of satisfactory caliber. I have strengthened my catching staff 50 per cent through the acquisition of Fred Carlisle, while my pitchers are in better form than they were at this time last year.

(BY HAPPY HOGAN, Manager of the Venice Team.)
Look out for the Tigers, that's all. My team is twice as speedy as last year's, and my pitching staff has been strengthened considerably through the purchase of Bill West and Ray Mitchell. Joe Berger at short is a better player than he was when with the Angels, while my new first baseman, Gleichmann, is a player of the highest caliber. Without will be one of the hardest hitters in the league this season, while you can look for Dicky Dayless and Gus Hedding to hit in the 300 circle also.

(BY FRANK DILLON, Manager of the Angels.)
I have the classiest team that was ever selected to represent Los Angeles. We have speed, a fine set of twirlers and the best outfield in the minor leagues. I look for Maggart, Ellis and Wolter to drive in and score more runs than any other outfield in the league, while Abstein has been hitting the ball hard this year and has all the "pep" and spirit of a youngster. My new combination around second covers more ground than any other one and both Terry and Ryan are only youngsters, and McMullin are only youngsters.

Which ever way you figure you cannot place the Angels worse than one, two, three, and if they play to the form I expect of them Los Angeles ought to win the pennant.

(BY CLIFF BLANKENSHIP, Manager of Salt Lake.)
I have one of the best teams that money could buy. They are going to prove the surprise of the league. Ryan, Zacher and Shian, my outfield, possess hitting strength, while Geddon, Tennant and Orr are real big league ball players. My pitching staff is in fine shape and I look for the two Williams boys and Laro to win a great portion of the games.

Winner of Season Pass—Edward W. Engs Jr., 232 Sheridan avenue, Piedmont.

Winners of Two Thursday Grandstand Seals—Frank Lambert, 1123 Forty-seventh avenue; Mitchell Busch, Saddle Rock Cafe; Joseph Foley, 154 Sixteenth avenue, East Oakland; C. St. Vincent, 618 Colby street; Cerenilly, 25 Fifth street, Oakland; P. E. Smoot, 1744 Franklin street; Louis Harris, 1020 Brush street; Martin Rothke, 620 Sixth street; J. J. Smith, 1744 Franklin street; E. Partello, 721 Fifth avenue, East Oakland.

Additional Mention—Miss D. Scott, 421 Moss avenue, Oakland.

"The early bird grabbed the pass." Edward W. Engs Jr., one of the well-known attorneys, was first at the cashier's window of The Tribune office last night and developed later that his envelope contained the correct list of players whose photos have been appearing in the sporting green for the last two weeks.

Young Engs made the window two jumps ahead of another youngster who was closely trailed by a third and a fourth. The winner's list and a neatly written list of names and date with clippings enclosed. In the first eighteen answers to come in only two were incorrect. These mistakes were made in the photographs of Meek and Schaller, the latter being mistaken for Mundorf and the former for Kitty Beamer.

Many people made the mistake of waiting for the sporting extras to appear up town, thus giving a big advantage to those who came down to the press room and bought the papers the second the newsmen got them for sale.

Miss D. Scott of 421 Moss avenue, the most accurate girl fan in Oakland, was fourteen into the office with the correct list, and as there were two incorrect answers she was not eligible for a prize. These mistakes were made in the photographs of Meek and Schaller, the latter being mistaken for Mundorf and the former for Kitty Beamer.

The contest proved interesting and instructive to hundreds of baseball fans, and proved to be a good thing for the heroes of the diamond, their records at bat and field, and all their characteristics which were brought down to the public who you imagine.

Bill Prohibiting Sale of Liquor in Professional Ball Parks Introduced.

According to dispatches from Sacramento it is probable that the San Francisco Recreation Commission will not have the chance to abolish the "booze cage" of their own accord. Under a bill drawn up by T. M. Wright, chairman of the public morals committee of the lower house of the California legislature, the San Francisco ball park would become "dry territory."

The bill forbids the sale of liquor in any ball park in the State where professional baseball is played. The bill was favorably recommended by the public morals committee of the legislature, and is now being pushed through the legislature by a great way toward its passage.

In introducing the bill, Wright declared that he had received numerous complaints about the "booze cage" in the grandstand in Recreation park, where beer, whiskey and other liquors are sold during the season. He said that the condition produces a nuisance to the fans and is a nuisance to spectators and players alike, and that clean sportsmen who follow the game are against it. The author of the bill bases his arguments.

Since Recreation park is the only ball park in the Pacific Coast where liquor is sold, the bill is practically a special one against that place. It was thought that the "booze cage" had died a natural death with the opening of the new park at Ewing field last year, but with the return to the Valencia street grounds, Henrichsen, the new owner of the San Francisco club, has again opened the objectionable place.

It is a well known fact that the players are against the booze cage, and at one time the Players' Fraternity began proceedings to have it abolished. The moving of the Seals home to Ewing field stopped this proceeding, but the bill does not pass, there is a good chance that the ball players will again enter protest.

CYCLING SEASON WILL OPEN SUNDAY

The local interclub cycling season of 1915 will start with a big meet at the park stadium Sunday under the auspices of the C. A. C. P. LOS ANGELES, Cal., March 26.—Art Hoffman has been unconditionally released by the Los Angeles Police League club. An effort was made to replace the young catcher with the Northwest League when he was released, but this having failed, he was released.

"PUSS" BENNETT RELEASED.
VANCOUVER, B. C., March 26.—"Puss" Bennett, veteran second baseman of the Vancouver Northwestern League, was unconditionally released today.

GOVERNOR VETOES BOXING.
CARSON CITY, Nev., March 26.—Retaining today the bill permitting 20-round boxing contests, passed at a recent session of the State Legislature, Governor Boyle put an end to all hopes of prize-fighting in Nevada, having already signed the general revenue bill, which re-established tax upon which ten-round prize fights have been held during the past two years.

Here's Fisherman's Text-Book Condensed for Vest Pocket Use

Here are some gentle reminders for veteran anglers as well as some helpful hints for those new at the game of catching the elusive trout. The advice is compiled by E. H. Dwyer.

To extricate your flies from trees, brush, etc., do not impatiently pull too hard or with force, pull slowly and gently. Generally the leader unwinds itself and the flies will come out quite unharmed. If the fly will only come out by pulling, pull it out by the hooks to become set in the branches and the leader to become tightly snarled. It is wise to carry a small knife with you. If the fly is caught in the branches, pull it out by the hooks to become set in the branches and the leader to become tightly snarled. It is wise to carry a small knife with you.

When a good trout has risen to your fly and you have induced it to take the bait, but it will not be necessary to use it often if the above directions are followed. The angler should be fastidious in the way of his dress and the quality of his food. The flies are caught. Remove the rod tip from the water and then with steady traction the branch will be cut and the flies and leader saved.

Never stand up in a boat and do not lean too far over the side of a boat when netting a fish or playing him. Do not take a loaded gun with you when fishing in a boat, for you may get into a hole in the boat or shoot your partner.

Do not forget your anchor, but in case you do, use a large flat rock. A flat one will hold better and will not slip from your rope as easily as a round one. A tackle box is a most useful thing when fishing. It will save much time and annoyance in looking for tackle and will not get mixed up with your fishing in salt water, and in summer a cake of ice covered with a piece of flannel will keep the flies from melting. It is unprofitable to go and anchor beside another angler who is catching fish.

You must change the water frequently when using live minnows. The bait will outlive otherwise. When fishing in a boat, do not lean too far over the side of a boat when netting a fish or playing him. ANGLERS READY FOR OPENING OF TROUT SEASON

Thursday Will Witness Big Exodus if Weather Is Favorable.

With the trout season almost at hand, veteran anglers are overhauling their tackle and preparing for an April 1 exodus. The recent rains have somewhat filled the favorite creeks and any continuation of the storm will seriously interfere with the pleasure of the sportmen. Bay city anglers will not have far to go to try their luck for there are scores of well stocked streams within a few hours' journey of Oakland and San Francisco.

Paper Mill stream, San Geronimo, Fish Creek, just above Point Reyes, Otisman creek, Hollis creek and Alpine creek, are places reported to be well stocked with trout.

The tide waters between Ross and Kentville are places worthy of trying. San Anselmo creek from Fairfax down to San Anselmo deserves mentioning as a good early stream.

About six miles north of Cazadero lies a fair-sized early season stream called Little Gualala. Upper Gualala and East Austin creeks, and Ward and Pole Mountain creeks are streams that should not be overlooked.

Sonoma creek, near Glen Ellen, is a favorite rendezvous for crack anglers, while Mill creek, Graham canyon, Austin creek, Kidat creek and Duncan Mills are choice creeks.

Old Bridge creek, a branch of the Austin, and two miles from Duncan's, Howard creek, Sheep House creek, Willow creek and Jennie creek are all fine trout streams around the Russian river district.

Santa Clara county is well stocked with fish, while Waddell creek, the San Gregorio, the San Lorenzo and Gato creeks are well known trout and fish streams.

BOWLING

The Standard Cables lost two out of three games with the Independents at the Thirteenth street alleys. Being their first game they rolled in the league they showed themselves to be some. The Vipers, Austin was high for the Independents with 184. Corcoran and Jarnie tied for high score for the Cables. They rolled in high take, running only a game. The score:

'Jimmy Valentine of Baseball' Is Here Johnston Brings His Family to Oakland

"JIMMY" JOHNSTON, famous outfielder and baseball idol, snapped with his wife and two children as the party alighted at the Sixteenth street depot this morning after journeying from Florida to join the Oakland Club in time for the Coast League opening.

TRAVERS-QUIMET PLACED PROPERLY ON SCRATCH MARK

When the official handicappers of the United States Golf association submitted the list of stroke allowances for 1915 play they made no mistake in one respect at least—the placing of Francis Ouimet and Jerome D. Travers together on the scratch mark. While the Massachusetts boy seems to have the present call on the man who manipulates the spotlight on the golf stage, yet on past performance, and taking into consideration all the vagaries of the game, it is only proper that Travers share the initial honor with him.

That Chick Evans should be placed at 1, and all by himself, is equally a satisfactory move all around. Until the Chicago golfer wins the national title he is certainly not entitled to be placed with either Travers or Ouimet. This, despite the brilliancy of his medal golf as exhibited in the last five national amateur

James Johnston, the "Jimmy Valentine of baseball," arrived in Oakland this morning with his wife and two children, concluding a 3000-mile cross-country journey made for the purpose of helping the Oaks defeat their old rivals, the Seals in the opening series of the 1915 season. Johnston is fit and ready to participate in tomorrow's game, should clearing weather make the contest possible. Had the teams played today "Jimmy" might have been too travel-worn to take part, but the day of rest made possible by the rain will permit him to start the race with his new comrades. Johnston in 1912 was the idol of the San Francisco fans, and his daring base running and heavy hitting constituted 50 per cent of the team's effectiveness. He was drafted by the Chicago Cubs and failed to get a permanent foothold in major league company, and was purchased this week by the Oaks.

"I am tickled to get back to the Pacific Coast league," said the outfielder this morning, "and I am also delighted to know that my old partner, Mundorf, will be again playing alongside of me in right field. I am in great condition and ready to go to work."

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Johnston and their two children, James Hunter Johnston and Dorothy Johnston, will make their home in Oakland.

title events and in his stroke play in last year's open championship.

The limit handicap is fixed by the association at five strokes and a total of 271 players are thus made eligible for the national amateur title fight this year in Detroit. Besides the three mentioned, four players are rated at two, including E. M. Byers and W. C. Fownes of Pittsburgh; W. J. Travis, Garden City, N. Y., and Warren K. Wood, of Chicago.

The three men are E. P. Allis, III., J. B. Anderson, E. W. Coker, E. L. Gorton, Oswald Kirkby, Frederick Herreshoff, Mason Phelps, J. B. Schlotman, Albert Seegal and P. W. Whitcomb. A list of 50 players follow with a stroke allowance of four, among whom there is mentioned but one Pacific coast player, Jack Neville. How Harry E. Davis was overlooked in this rating is probably explained by the fact that the official handicappers have not yet made the annual "go off."

There follows a list of 203 men handicapped at five.

Among the Pacific coast men placed on the five handicap list but three names appear. They are E. A. Fleeger of Seattle and E. S. Armstrong and Norman Macbeth, Southern California golfers.

There is no doubt that Ouimet is the golfing marvel of recent years. Two years ago he started the world by tying with Vardon and Ray for the open championship at Brookline, equalling par on the last four holes in order to obtain this tie. The next day he won the open title. Ouimet won the amateur championship at Edwauk by defeating Graves in the final round. His natural enough in view of all this, that the young champion's friends should boost for his being given a position absolutely alone in the official handicap list.

Ouimet made his national debut in amateur company the same year he won the open championship, just ahead of his defeat of Vardon and Ray. He qualified at this Garden City meeting and defeated C. B. Buxton of Philadelphia. In the next round Ouimet lost to Travers, who went in to a win of the championship. That year Ouimet had a handicap of four strokes, while Travers alone was rated at scratch. Last year he divided the honors of scratch with Travers because of his win of the 1912 open event.

Now, the Brooklyn youth many suppose Jerry Travers' record in time, but he has still some distance to go and his wonderful work of the past two years does not find him absolutely arrived; not at all events. Does not find him replacing the New Jersey golfer in the estimation of golfers generally?

For Jerome Travers has some record himself. It reads:

Travers first played in a national championship in 1904, when he was 13. He was beaten in the first round by Eben Beers. The following year he beat Perry Fyne, and was beaten by Archie Graham. In 1907, when he was 20, he won the national championship, and in doing so had to beat such cracks as Herreshoff, Warren Wood, and his victims were Kenneth Edwards, W. C. Fownes Jr., Walter Travis, and Max Behr. He did not show any of his true form in the two years following.

In 1911, after a rest of virtually two years, he was beaten in the third round by Harold Hilton, who created many surprises. The following year he was again back in condition and again won the national title. His record in the round against Chick Evans was unbeatable, but is generally regarded as the finest exhibition of golf ever played in this country.

In 1912 he just barely qualified after a tie for last place, but again he was triumphant. Watson, Ouimet, Reid, Herreshoff and Anderson were the men he beat. Last year he was beaten in the final by Ouimet. In the last six championships he has played he won the title four times and was runner-up once, a record that no other American golfer has ever equaled.

VETERAN LOSES LEG.
HUNTINGTON, Pa., March 30.—Fifty years after a Confederate shell had struck and injured his right leg, Ellet Ramsey, of this county, had the leg removed at the Blair hospital. The amputation was made necessary by suffering from the old wound received half a century ago. He stood the operation well and will recover.

ENGLISH HAVE FUN AT OUR EXPENSE

A famous English sporting paper called "Boxing" takes a slam at our method of holding no-decision contests. Here is the wording of a cartoon ridiculing the "no-decision" bouts.

"Gentlemen! I have now to introduce the referee. He in accordance with the articles of agreement, will be subject to the judgment of a further referee, who, in turn, will submit his decision to a jury who will give their collective opinion in writing to be dealt with by a gentleman who shall be nominated from among the spectators by mutual consent, the decision of these will then be submitted to the champion for his O. K. and providing it meets with his approval will then be allowed to pass. May the best man win!"

CAN YOU PASS FOR LIFE INSURANCE?

"Not with your kidneys, you can't," says the Insurance Doctor, and he is sincere, because the Insurance Company wants you to pass.

Life insurance is absolutely necessary to every man and woman who has somebody near and dear to them who is dependent on them. Therefore be sure of the condition of your kidneys and bladder before the Insurance Doctor brings out his little test bottle. If he rejects you as "physically unfit," don't wait a minute. Go to the nearest drug store and get GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules, which have been a standard remedy for over two hundred years, and which are imported direct from Holland. Be sure the name GOLD MEDAL appears on the package, as they are the only genuine and original. They act on the kidneys and bladder so that you feel better almost at once. Action becomes regular; color natural; sediment disappears; painful and suppressed or too frequent passages cease; all as a result of taking three of these pleasant little capsules daily for two or three weeks.

GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules are prepared in Holland and imported into the United States only by the Genuine Haarlem Oil Mfg. Co., with their American Office at 194 Water St., New York. They are sold by all first-class druggists, prices 25c, 50c and $1.00. Insure a guarantee to refund the money if they do not help you. But you must be sure to get GOLD MEDAL—the original and only genuine Tilly Haarlem Oil Capsules. Guaranteed and sold by the Owl Drug Co.—Advertisement.

'HYPOCRITES' AT OAKLAND PLEASURES

All Phases of Daily Existence
Are Depicted in This Remarkable Play.

MARGARET EDWARDS.

A daring screen classic is "Hypocrites," which is attracting throngs to the Oakland Photo Theater this week. The photo play, inspired by the famous French painting "The Truth," was written by Lois Weber, who staged this picture in conjunction with the Bosworth Paramount Company which gives theatergoers a photoplay of more than artistic value and crowded with interest.

The church, politics, modern society, love, sex, ignorant parentage, marriage, and other phases of daily existence, are mirrored as they appear to Naked Truth, California Venus, Margaret Edwards—Advertisement.

HEAD OF AUTO CONCERN HERE HIS TRIP COMBINES INSPECTION

W. L. HUGHSON (LEFT) AND HORACE DE LISSER, ONE OF THE BRISCOE MOTOR CO. HEADS, A VISITOR HERE.

Horace D. Lissier, financial head of the Briscoe Motor Car Company, in company with W. L. Hughson, president of the Pacific Kiesel Kar Company, were in Oakland yesterday on a combined inspection and sightseeing trip. This was De Lissier's first visit to Oakland in which an opportunity presented itself to see this and neighboring cities. The impressions he carried away with him present Oakland in a much different light in his mind. He was somewhat startled to learn of the vastness of populous territory on this side.

This year in reality is the first that the Briscoe car has been marketed. It is just now being firmly established in every city in this country. The makers of it are the men who first made the Maxwell the successful car in the early motoring days. Benjamin Briscoe, John Maxwell and De Lissier are the three who are controlling its destinies and under their direction the Briscoe is bound to be one of the big sellers in the low-priced cars.

De Lissier is one of the founders of the Ajax Rubber Company. Today he is in virtual control of it. The Ajax tire is one of the oldest known tires on the market today and is to be found everywhere in America where automobiles are used.

The easterner, in common with every one who has visited the Exposition, is carried away with the splendor of it. Since his arrival in San Francisco he has been a daily visitor. His big regret is that he is soon forced to leave for home.

WESTCOTT MODELS NOW HERE.

The Westcott models for the present season are now here. Kiel and Evans, incorporated, are showing the entire line in the warehouses in this city.

Substantially improved over 1914, both the four and six cylinder cars now meet with approval from some very critical buyers. The four touring car is listed at $1255 delivered in Oakland while the six-cylinder is priced at $1700 here.

Stream line body designs much in vogue now are employed in the Westcott. The motor is rated at 35-horse power for the four-cylinder model and 50-horse power for the six.

On the four-cylinder, lighting, starting and ignition is electrical. The DeLuxe version supplying the current. Weston-Mott axles, front and rear are used on the four and Timken's for front and rear are to be found on the six.

On the touring car models, the divided front seat is a feature. This makes possible easy access to the front and rear seats.

Kiel and Evans are state agents for the Westcott. They intend to place the line in every big city in California. Later on, in Los Angeles, the Westcott is to have strong representation.

GABRIEL, SNUBBER AGENTS.

Chandler and Lyon have taken the coast agency for the Gabriel Rebound Snubber. This device is made by the makers of the Gabriel horn. It performs the work of a shock absorber, makes the car easier riding, reduced spring breakage and adds materially to motor touring comfort.

The Snubber has found a ready market throughout the country. Under the sales management of the Chandler and Lyon organization through their branch stores in all large California cities it will no doubt be an article extensively used in the west.

CARRY FISK TIRES.

While ranked as one of the newer accessories firms and not boasting of a big sales force, the store conducted by B. W. Hibish at 5500 Broadway is making decided progress. A full line of Fisk tires are carried. Hibish maintains the Alameda county service station for Jones speedometers and sells quite an assortment of supplies. His location is one of the best to be had, situated as it is in the heart of automobile row.

THOR MOTORCYCLES ARRIVE.

C. F. Salomonson has met with a healthy demand for the new Thor motorcycles. He has had a good sized allotment since the first machines came in a month ago. 1915 Thors are more simplified than those of the previous year. The two speed transmission and clutch have been combined and possibility of slipping is done away with. The starter has been simplified. Lowering of the saddle by two inches is a detailed improvement that is meeting with favor.

AGED MAN FATALLY BURNED IN BED

Fire Caused by Overturned
Lamp Nearly Cremates
Slumberer.

An Sam, an aged Chinese, narrowly escaped being cremated alive in his room at 339 Sixth street early this morning when a coal oil lamp was overturned, causing a fire in the place. The Chinaman was dragged from his room by Fire Chief Sam Short and some policemen and taken to the receiving hospital. It was found that he was suffering from burns about the head, arms, body and legs and that he was in a condition which may make his recovery impossible.

The police were called to the scene about 2:30 a. m. by police whistles blown by excited Chinese in the building. Sergeant Thornbury and Patrolmen Buckley and Rumsen rushed to the scene and hastily searched the rooms in the lodging house. They failed to find the aged Chinaman, however. The fire department arrived and while engaged in putting out the blaze discovered Ah Sam lying in his bed. The old man was almost suffocated from the smoke and was badly burned all over the body.

At the hospital today it was said he had a slight chance of recovery. He is 74 years of age. He was able to tell the police that he had been lying in his bed smoking and that he did not know whether the fire was caused by a coal oil lamp or by hot ashes from his pipe.

The damage to the building was slight.

Is It Justifiable— Britain's Ban on Trade With Germany?

A grave complication which may have far-reaching consequences for this country and which is already costing much anxiety and money, has arisen through Britain's action in banning all neutral commerce to Germany. Every shade of public opinion regarding our duty at this juncture, which has no parallel in international law, is reflected in THE LITERARY DIGEST for March 27th.

Thoughtful Americans will do well to read the DIGEST very carefully this week. From no other source can the reader get such a complete knowledge of how this country stands on this question and what steps are favored.

What the Liquor Press Thinks of the Prohibition Wave

That there is a mighty flood of prohibition sentiment gaining volume in the United States is admitted by the attitude of the liquor press, which is accurately and vividly shown from every angle in this week's DIGEST.

But these are only two features. In addition, every subject uppermost in the public mind finds adequate and strictly non-partizan treatment by text, photograph, and cartoon in this foremost weekly news-magazine—Politics, Science, Invention, Religion, Literature, Art, Drama, Sports, receive the same attention as the absorbing news of the war.

It Saves Time and Money for Busy People

No other magazine is read so carefully and confidently. From the highest government officials, diplomatists, and statesmen, its circulation extends into every business, occupation, and profession in every country, embracing a million thoughtful readers weekly. And this impressive clientele is increasing rapidly. It is high time you became acquainted with THE LITERARY DIGEST if you have not already done so.

This week's number will give you a clear idea of its unique service to busy people.

NOTE—In many places the news-dealer is selling out his DIGEST supply so quickly that many readers are often disappointed in failing to get their copy. Give your news-dealer a standing order for THE LITERARY DIGEST and you will always be sure of getting yours.
